1405.
July 12. Ripon.

Grant to the king's servants of his evey John Barbour and John Sutton of the 100s. which the king's lieges of the town of Waderton, co. Lincoln, are bound to pay to the king because one Alan Haule, a felon there, escaped from prison, notwithstanding that such escapes are assigned for the expenses of the household.

Presentation of Richard Baker, parson of the church of Hompton Bisshop, in the diocese of Hereford, to the vicarage of the church of Mountelone, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Hugh Pontesbury.

Aug. 17. Leicester.

Grant, during pleasure, to John Betanne of Lenn, in recompense of his expenses within the realm and without, of the offices of searcher and ulmager of cloths within the port of Lenn, receiving as much as others used to receive.

Grant for life to John Parker, yeoman of the king's chamber, of the office of parker of the park of Beabush, co. Sussex, in the king's hands by reason of the forfeiture and rebellion of the late earl Marshal, with all fees, wages, profits and other commodities in the same place and manner as other holders of the office have had.

Grant for life to William de Hodelston of the office of chief bailiff of Caupeland in the same manner as others had it of the grant of the earl of Northumberland.

Grant to the king's servant Thomas Toky, yeoman of the chandlery, whose wages of the household are in arrear for four years and more, of 15l. due to the king for the temporalities of the abbey of Romeseye, co. Southampton, in the time of the last voidance, in recompense of that sum of his wages.

Grant to John Parker (as above).

Aug. 17. Leicester.

Pardon to Thomas de Seton for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions and felonies committed by him; and grant to him of all his lands and goods forfeited to the king on this account.

MEMBRANE 12—cont.

Aug. 7. Pontefract Castle.

Pardon to Henry Acclum for all treasons, insurrections and rebellions committed by him.

Grant for life to the king's servant William Noter of the office of parker of the park of Moskwyth of Topclyf on Swale, which office is in the king's hands by the forfeiture of the earl of Northumberland, with wages of 2l. daily and all due profits, fees and other commodities.

Aug. 27. Worcester.

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's servant John Shipton, now tenant of the undermentioned lands, to Thomas Layle and John Polayn, executors of the will of Thomas Keane, lieutenant of Alan de Fauxnall, late keeper of the king's park of Claryngton, in the time of Edward III., and William Escote, then tenant of his lands, of 113l. incurred by them in the Exchequer in the fifth year because they did not appear to render account for the said Thomas of the profits of certain branches and bark from certain oaks in the park to the value of 9l. 12s. cut down for the works of the park, manor and lodge there, of which 9l. 12s. the said Thomas was indebted in the Exchequer and of which the king has now been satisfied.