MEMBRANE 6—cont.

Pardon, for a fine of 10½, paid at the receipt of the king's chamber, to Simon Wenslave, parson of the church of Collome within the archbishopric of York, for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions and felonies committed by him against the king's royal majesty: and pardon to him of the forfeiture of his goods on this account. By p.s.

Whereas the pope has provided John Hayward, chaplain, to the prebend of Pennoos in the cathedral church of St. Davids, the king pardons to the said John his trespass in this and grants licence for him to accept the prebend.

Pardon to John Langton, esquire, for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions and felonies committed by him except murders and rapes.

Grant for life to the king's esquire Hugh Norburgh, in recompense of 40½ yearly granted to him for life by letters patent (see Vol. I. p. 203), surrendered, of the office of master forester of Rothebury with the due wages and fees; and grant to him also for life of 40½ yearly from the issues of the lordship of Rothebury.

Pardon to Robert Milherson of Thwaytes, 'taillour,' alias Robert son of William Milner of Thwaytes, for all felonies and misprisions committed by him except murder and rape.

The like to John Baron son of John Baron of Mellom in Coupeland.

Pardon to Robert Staynton, esquire, for all treasons and felonies committed by him.

Presentation of William de Chestreton to the parish church of Chestreton, in the diocese of Ely.

MEMBRANE 5.

Grant to Walter, bishop of Durham, in repayment of 2,000 marks which he has lent to the king and delivered to the king's kinsman Richard, lord of Grey, the king's chamberlain, to be expended on the support of the king's wars in the marches towards Scotland and in the justification of the Welsh rebels, that he shall have that sum from the first moneys from the moiety of the tenth lately granted to the king by the prelates and clergy of the province of Canterbury payable at Christmas next at the hands of the collectors, viz. 520½ in the archdeaconries of Norwich and Norfolk, 295½ in the archdeaconry of Sudbury, 145½ in the archdeaconry of Suffolk, 100½ in the diocese of Ely, 200 marks in the archdeaconry of Sarum and Dorset and 200½ in the archdeaconry of Berks and Wilts.

Grant to the king's esquire John Norbury, in lieu of a grant to him of the custody at a rent of 85 marks yearly by letters patent dated 15 November, 1 Henry IV, surrendered, of the custody of the alien priory of Grenewych and Leuesham during the war with France without rendering anything to the king, provided that he pay tenths and quota when granted by the clergy of the realm, maintain the houses, buildings, woods, enclosures and gardens without waste and support all charges.