Grant to the prior and convent of Hexham near the marches of Scotland, in consideration of the great poverty to which they have come by the burning and destruction of the Scots, so that their church, manors, granges and holdings with their goods for the most part are destroyed, of all farms and rents from the franchise and liberty of Hexhamshire due to the king for Whitsun term last, not exceeding the value of 100l., in the king's hands by the death of Richard, late archbishop of York and lord of the franchise and liberty, provided that they answer for any surplus.

By p.s.

Grant to Henry Percy Dathell, 'chivaler,' and his heirs of the manors and town of Hunmanby, co. York, the manor and town of Iselham, co. Cambridge, the manor and town of Toft by Wytham, co. Lincoln, the manor of Wythall, co. Cumberland, the manor of Blaymyr in Scotland and all other lands, rents and services in the said manors and towns taken into the king's hands on account of any forfeiture by him, with all issues, to hold with all liberties, franchises and other commodities as he had them before.

By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's servant Thomas Toky, yeoman of the chandlery, of 10l. yearly from the alnage of cloths of the city of York.

Vacated because otherwise in this year.

By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's esquire Henry Lounde of all lands within the town of Sutton in Holderness, co. York, late of Ralph Hastynge, 'chivaler,' who made forfeiture to the king, to hold to the value of 22 marks yearly, provided that he answer for any surplus.

Vacated because otherwise in the seventh year.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's servant Henry atte Greve alias Henry Leycestre herald, by mainprise of Thomas Lubtilton of the county of Worcester and Thomas de Denton of the county of Leicester, of the custody of all lands late of John Plumbe, worth 6 marks yearly, during the minority of John his son and heir with the marriage of the latter without disparagement, and so from heir to heir, provided that he answer for any surplus at the Exchequer, find a competent maintenance for the heir, maintain the houses and buildings without waste and support all charges.

By K.

Grant, during good behaviour, to the king's servant William Travers, on the surrender by him of letters patent granting to him the office of bailiff and keeper of Colneys, co. Suffolk, of the offices of the chief bailiffs of the lordship of Hereweche and Dovercourt, co. Essex, and the office of chief bailiff of the lordship of the manor of Walton, co. Suffolk; and grant to him for life of the office of warrener of the lordship of Walton, co. Suffolk, receiving the accustomed wages from the issues of the manor of Walton. The offices are in the king's hands on account of the forfeiture of Thomas, late earl Marshal.

By p.s.

William Waxham, esquire, going on the king's service to Wales, has letters nominating William Twyer and Richard Emound his attorneys in England for half a year.

The chancellor received the attorneys until the return of the nominator to England.

By p.s.

Grant to Roger Wyse (as on p. 50).