Membrane 2—cont.

Commission, during pleasure, to John Sutton of the office of tronage and pesage of wool, hides and wool-fells in the port of Kyngeston on Hull and all ports and places adjacent, receiving the accustomed wages and fees.

Vacated because in the seventh year.

April 22. Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's servitor John Petyt of the king's armoury of the office of 'waterkeeper' in the river Thames between the town of Oxford and 'Colley Dychie,' with fees and other profits as Ralph Scot, deceased, had.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's tenants of Kylbourn, in consideration of the great losses sustained by them through the rebels of the county of York, of 445 sheep late of John Colvile of Dale, knight, and forfeited to the king on account of his treason.

Grant to Joan late the wife of John Fawconberge, knight, of all corn growing within the lordship of Shelton and Marsk and other goods late of the said John, not exceeding the value of 40s., so that she answer for any surplus.

Grant for life to the king's knight John Luttilbury of the wapentake or hundred of Strafford with the fees, issues, profits, commodities and emoluments belonging to it as John Sayvel, knight, deceased, had, not exceeding the value of 50 marks yearly, provided that he answer for any surplus.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because with his assent on 2 April in the seventh year the king granted the same to Thomas de Neville, lord of Furneall.

July 15. Westminster.

Licence, for 40s. paid in the hanaper by Robert Qweldrik, citizen and tailor of London, master, and Thomas Medbourne, Sampson Benet, William Surcestre and Thomas Sutton, citizens and tailors of London, wardens of the gild and fraternity of St. John Baptist, London, for John Chircheman, citizen and grocer of London, to grant in mortmain to them and the brethren and sisters of the gild 1 messuages and 17 shops in the parish of St. Martin Oteswiche, London, 6s. 8d. rent from a tenement of Richard Redwynd, late citizen and grocer of London, in the parish of St. Michael in Crokydlane, London, and the advowson of the church of St. Martin Oteswiche, London, held of the king in burgage, they rendering to the said John 10s. yearly for life and paying to Richard Stace, 'joweler,' and Joan his mother 10s. yearly for life, finding a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said church for the soul of the said John after his death and the souls of his relations, paying 5 marks yearly after the death of the said John to the chaplain of the chantry founded in the said church for the souls of Master William de Oteswyche and his father, mother, wife, relations, friends and benefactors and John de Oteswyche, late citizen of London, and supporting other charges and works of piety.

Presentation, at the nomination of Thomas Knollys, Geoffrey Brook, Henry Halton and John Cosyn, parishioners of the church of St. Antoninus, London, of William Gyles, chaplain of one of the five chantries in the chapel of St. Mary by the Guildhall, London, to the chantry at the altar of St. Katharine in the said church, on an exchange of benefices with Philip Cook.