1405. Westminster.

which lands do not exceed the value of 6 marks yearly in time of peace, and at present are of small or no value on account of the rebellion of the Welsh, during the minority of Alexander son and heir of the said Alexander with his marriage, and so from heir to heir. By p.s.

Dec. 5. Westminster. Levesenmus and confirmation to the men having woods and common of pasture within the forest of Porcestrce of letters patent dated 29 February, 21 Edward III. For 1 mark paid in the hanaper.

Whereas Edmund Walsyningham, who had certain lands in the county of Salop as of the right of Joan his wife, sister of the king's esquire Roger Waryng, is an adherent of the Welsh rebels, by which the said lands and all his goods are forfeited to the king; the king, for the good service of the said Roger in divers journeyes in Wales and elsewhere and at the battle of Shrewsburie without wages, fees or rewards from the king, grants to him the said lands, not exceeding the value of 6 marks yearly, for the life of the said Joan with all the said goods, which are within the value of 100 marks, in reward of his service and for the safety of the estate of his said sister, provided that he answer for any surplus. By p.s.

Dec. 9. Westminster. Presentation of John Knjght of Hopton, chaplain, nominated by H. bishop of Norwich, to the vicarage of the church of Frethorpe, in the diocese of Norwich, void by the resignation of Nicholas Stradesete.

Dec. 9. Westminster. Whereas pope Bonifacce made a provision to Robert Filz Hugh, master in arts and scholar in theology in the University of Oxford, of the office or dignity of chancellor within the church of Dublin in Ireland, to which the prebend of Fynglas is annexed, and the said Robert accepted the office and prebend; the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the bull. By p.s.

Jan. 20. Westminster. Commission, for half a year, to William Coupere to take carriage to the household for victuals and all other things touching the offices of buyer of the lardor of the household.

1405. Dec. 2. Westminster. Licence for John Ixworth, doctor of civil law of the University of Cambridge, a member of the pope's household, to obtain execution of a grace and provision made to him by the pope in the cathedral churches of Salisbury and Chichester to prebends, offices and dignities not elective. By p.s.

Nov. 1. Kenilworth Castle. Whereas the pope made a provision to John Smeche, chaplain, of the king's allegiance of Ireland, of a prebend of the value of 10 marks yearly in the cathedral church of Kilkenny, in the diocese of Ossory; the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the provision. By p.s.

Dec. 2. Westminster. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for William Heyne of Leyre Marny, co. Essex, staying on the king's service in the company of the king's son Thomas de Lancaster, steward and admiral of England, lieutenant of Ireland, on the safe keeping of that land.