1405.

Dec. 10. Westminster.

Membrane 24—cont.

Inspectimus and confirmation to Robert Penfeld of Romene and Alice his wife of a writing of John Cranebourne, the master, and the brethren of the hospital of the House of God, Osprenge, dated the vigil of Michaelmas, 3 Henry IV, to which the seal of the said John and the common seal of the house are appended, granting to them for life a yearly rent of 4l. 6s. 8d. from the manor of Dounceourt, provided that if Alice survive Robert and marry again the rent shall cease.

For 20s. paid in the hanaper.

Presentation of John Freman, chaplain, to the church of Hocelyf, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of Thomas Cateryk.

Dec. 15. Westminster.

Whereas one Reginald de Ferers, one of the lieges of Edward III, without licence took to wife one Katharine, a Frenchwoman and born in the kingdom of France, and they acquired to themselves and their heirs six messuages, two tofts, a dovecot, a cottage, one ferling and 92 acres of land, one rood of meadow and 9s. 9d. rent in Milton, Sutton, Burleigh, Middleton and Horrswill, co. Devon, and on the death of Reginald Katharine was seised of the premises and enfeoffed Martin Ferers, Thomas Halsby and Peter Silverlok of the same in 44 Edward III, without licence, and Thomas and Peter died and Martin was seised of the premises, and Thomas Peyvre, John Broughton, Richard Freman, John Donyngton and Roger Keston have his estate in the premises to themselves and their heirs; the king, for 100 marks paid by them at his chamber, pardons to them what pertains to him and releases to them all right in the premises, which do not exceed the value of 20 marks yearly.

By p.s.

Pardon to John Gerstan of Croston, co. Lancaster, for all felonies, trespasses and misprisions committed by him except treason, murder and rape.

By p.s.

Grant, at the supplication of the king's consort the queen, to Galuan Trent of Luca, to whom she is indebted in the sum of 2,500 marks for certain things bought by him for her use, that he shall have payment of 2,000 marks from 10s. on the custom of the sack of wool and 12d. on the custom of the piece of woollen cloth shipped by alien merchants in the port of Suthampton and 500 marks from 6s. 8d. on the custom of the sack of wool shipped by the king's lieges in the ports of Chichester and Ipswich; provided that certain tallies containing the said sum of 2,500 marks, levied at the receipt of the Exchequer for her on 27 October, 5 Henry IV, on the custom and subsidy in the port of Suthampton, from which she has had no payment, be surrendered at the said receipt.

By p.s.

Pardon to John Stertavaunt of York for having on Tuesday in the second week of Lent, 6 Henry IV, in the street of Walmegate within the liberty of the city of York struck Thomas Eserik of York, 'potter,' with a sword, from which he died on Wednesday, the Annunciation of St. Mary, following.

By K.

1406.

Jan. 3. Westminster.

Whereas pope Innocent in his first year made a grace and provision to Thomas Feriby, late clerk and servant of the king's uncle Thomas, late duke of Gloucester, deceased, of a canony under expectation of a prebend in each of the conventual churches of Shaftesbury and Wilton, in the diocese of Salisbury; the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the bull.

By p.s.