Grant to the king's clerk John Catryk of the prebend of Heyworth in the cathedral church of Salisbury. By p.s.

Grant for life to John Culet of a corrody now vacant and in the king's gift in the abbey of Coggeshale. By p.s.

Protection with clause voluntarvm, for one year, for Robert Calmore, lately dwelling in the city of Canterbury, going on the king's service to Ireland in the company of the king's son Thomas de Lancaster, steward and admiral of England, lieutenant of Ireland, on the safe-keeping of that land. By bill of p.s.

Grant to the king's kinsman Thomas Montagu, son of John, late earl of Salisbury, and Eleanor his wife the manor of Crischurchc Twynham with the borough and hundred of Crischurchc with hamlets, members and other things belonging to the same, extended at 100L yearly, to hold from Michaelmas last during his minority; on the surrender by Alesia late the wife of Thomas, late earl of Kent, of letters patent dated 22 April, 2 Henry IV, granting to her the premises and the manor of Ryngewode. By K.

Grant for life to German de Sancto Vedasto, prior of the priory of Goldcleyve, which is a cell of the alien abbots of Bec Herlewyn, of the manor of Membury, co. Devon, which pertains to the priory, to hold without rendering anything to the king, so that he maintain the houses and buildings without waste and support all charges; on the surrender of letters patent committing the custody of the manor to Thomas Pomeray, ‘chivaler,’ William Pomeray and William Davy, chaplain. By K.

Presentation of Thomas Glanton to the church of Childerdidie, in the diocese of London. By K.

Pardon to John Aleyn, labourer, who lately in the church of Swafhamprior before John Beverich, one of the coroners in the county of Cambridge, acknowledged that he had killed Geoffrey Hare, labourer, of Swafhamprior at Swafhamprior and abjured the realm. By K.

Grant to William Tristour, the king's saddler, and his executors and assigns in repayment of 1,200L due to him from the king for divers parcels of his mistery delivered to the great wardrobe, of 81L and 103 marks yearly respectively from the farms of the alien priories of Lodres, co. Dorset, and Caresbrok in the Isle of Wight, co. Southampton, and the lands and possessions belonging to them, in the king's hands on account of the war with France and denised at farm at those amounts, to hold from Michaelmas last until he shall be fully satisfied; on the surrender by him of two tallies containing the sum of 400L levied on Richard Merlawe and John Hende, collectors of the customs and subsidies in the port of London, on 9 July, 1 Henry IV, another tally containing the sum of 206L 13s. 4d. levied on Simon atte Forde, late one of the collectors in the port of Melcombe, from the customs and subsidies in the port on 6 March, 5 Henry IV, and a bill of debenture in the wardrobe for 580L 6s. 8d., from all of which he can get no payment. By p.s.

Mandates in pursuance to the keepers, farmers, bailiffs or other occupiers of the two priories.