1406.

Grant to John Marmyon of Keisby, co. Lincoln, who when on the king's service in the company of the king's kinsman Henry, lord of Beaumont, and Thomas Rempston, knight, was lately outlawed at the suit of Gerard Braybrok, 'chivaler,' and others on a writ of trespass in a foreign county, viz., the county of Bedford, he being ignorant of the same at the time, through which all his goods were forfeited to the king, of the said goods to the value of 300l., in recompense of his expenses on the king's service.  By p.s.

March 2.  Westminster.

Whereas lately the king granted to his esquire Peter Crulle, in part payment of his wages due to him within the household, 17l. 6s. 8d., demanded in the Exchequer from Nicholas Danyel and William Bulcote, clerks, from the farm of the alien priory of Andever for Michaelmas term, 23 Richard II.; and the letters patent are invalid because it has been found that no wages were due to him, and he has surrendered them; the king grants to him the said 18l. 6s. 8d. as a gift.  By p.s.

March 5.  Westminster.

Grant to the mayor of Dover of certain customs at the town for seven years, to be expended on the enclosure of the town by supervision of the constable of Dover castle or his lieutenant.  By p.s.

1406.

Grant to the king's clerk William Pylton, to whom the king lately granted licence to accept a provision to any ecclesiastical benefice in the cathedral church of Exeter, and who has given the king to understand that no other like licence has yet been granted to anyone else, that no such licence granted in future shall extend to any ecclesiastical benefice which he may wish to accept.  By p.s.

1406.
Feb. 27.  Westminster.

Grant to the king's consort the queen, in deduction of 10,000 marks yearly at the Exchequer granted to her for life in dower by letters patent dated 8 March, 4 Henry IV, of 400 marks yearly from the death of Thomas West, 'chivaler,' at the hands of Eleanor late the wife of Amaury de Sancto Amando, Thomas de la Ware, clerk, William Stokes and John Kirkeby, to whom the king on 10 February last committed the custody of all manors, lordships and lands late of the said Thomas during the minority of Thomas his son and heir at the said rent.  By p.s.

March 1.  Westminster.

Appointment of the king's son Thomas de Lancaster, steward of England, as lieutenant of Ireland for twelve years, receiving according to the form of a certain indenture, with divers specified powers.  By K.

Whereas the king's consort Joan, queen of England, has for life of the king's grant by letters patent the manors of Mammesfeld and Lyndeby in Shirwode by the name of the town of Mammesfeld with the manor of Lyndeby, co. Nottingham, to the value of 60l. yearly as part of her dower, and Eleanor late the wife of Nicholas Dagworth, 'chivaler,' has for life of the king's grant by letters patent a yearly rent of 40l. which William Willicotes of the county of Oxford, esquire, and his heirs pay at the Exchequer for the manor of Hedington with the hundreds of Bolingdene and without the North Gate of Oxford and a yearly rent of 18l. 4s. 8d. from the free farm of the town of Portsmouth, co. Southampton; and they have agreed to surrender their estates to the king for exchange, and have surrendered the letters patent; the king grants to the said Eleanor the said manors to hold for life to the said value with issues from the morrow of Michaelmas last.  By K.