Membrane 32 — cont.

Revocation of the protection with clause columnus, for one year, lately granted by letters patent to William Pymner of the county of Oxford, staying on the king's service in Picardy in the company of the king's brother John, earl of Somerset, captain of the town of Calais on the safe-keeping of the same, because he delays in the city of London, as the sheriffs have certified.

MEMBRANE 31.

Licence, for a sum of money paid in the king's chamber, for John Whithede, rector of the parish church of St. Nicholas, Stabanan, in the diocese of Armagh, and the vicar of the same church, to found a perpetual chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service in the chapel of St. Mary adjoining the chancel of the church for the happy estate of the king and for his soul after death and the souls of the lady Mary his late consort and his progenitors, and to grant to the chaplain in frank almoins lands in Ireland, not held of the king in chief, to the value of 100s. yearly.

By p.s.

Grant to John Cristemesse, chaplain, of the prebend in the collegiate chapel of St. Mary and All Angels, York, void by the resignation of John Baleman.

Mandate in pursuance to the guardian of the spirituality of the archbishopric, the see being vacant.

Grant for life to the king's son Thomas de Lancastre of 100l. yearly from the issues of the manor of Petworth, co. Sussex. The king's esquire Antony Rys has surrendered letters patent granting the same to him for life, and he is an alien and cannot acquire lands or enjoy the possession of a free holding within the realm without special licence, and so for this and other causes the right of the annuity has accrued to the king.

By p.s.

Licence, for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, for the king's clerk John Legburn, parson of the church of St. Peter, Somercotes, or his executors, to found a perpetual chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of All Saints, Legburn, for the good estate of the king and his children and the said John and for their souls after death and the souls of the king's father John, late duke of Lancaster, and the king's mother Blanche his consort and the father and mother of the said John, and to grant in mortmain to the chaplain a messuage, 80 acres of arable land, 10 acres of meadow, 16 acres of pasture, 24 acres of wood and 40s. rent in Legburn, Calthorpe, Northryston, Southryston, Great Carleton, Little Carleton, Somercotes and Saltfleetby, held of the king in chief as of the duchy of Lancaster; and also for John de Skupholme and William Mabelthorpe to grant in mortmain a messuage in Somercotes containing 98 feet in length and 68 feet in breadth, held of the earldom of Richmond, which the earl of Westmorland holds for life with reversion to the king, to the said John Legburn in enlargement of his manse there.

Exemplification of the tenour of the enrolment of letters patent dated 6 October, 1 Henry IV [Vol. I. p. 18], inspecting and confirming to Thomas Walton letters patent of Richard II. He has made oath in Chancery that these letters have been accidentally lost and if they are found he will surrender the present letters.

Licence, for 10l. paid in the hanaper by the prior and convent of the house of St. Michael of the Carthusian order by Kyngeston on Hull, for them to appropriate the church of Hoggesthorpe in mortmain according to a licence
