1406.
June 9.
Westminster.
Appointment, until Christmas, of the king's yeoman Adam Palmere, to take coxes, rabbits and fish for the expenses of the household and carriage for the same.

June 11.
Westminster.
Whereas the pope has granted to John Wyghtman, clerk, bachelor in law, that he may accept a benefice, with cure not exceeding the value of 30 marks or without cure not exceeding the value of 20 marks yearly, at the disposal of the bishops of Durham and Carlisle or the priors and chapters of Durham and Carlisle: the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the bull.

June 12.
Westminster.

1. Letters patent dated 20 December, 1 Richard II, inspecting and confirming earlier charters. Calendar, p. 81.

For 60s. paid in the hanaper.

June 16.
Westminster.

Grant, by the advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal and at the special request of the commons of the realm in the present Parliament, that the manor of wools, hides and woollen felts with the manors of wools, which the king lately granted should be at Great Jernemuth, shall be at Bishop's Lene and Ipswich until the next Parliament.

MEMORANDE 25.

May 28.
Westminster.
Pardon to John Staunton for the death of Jevan Walshman alias Jevan Synecar alias Jevan Tacechar.

May 20.
Westminster.
The prior and convent of St. Botolph's, Colchester, in the diocese of London, have granted, by writing that they will find a canon chaplain of the priory to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. Katharine the Virgin within the conventual church of the priory for the soul of William Colcheste, abbot of Westminster, after his death and for the souls of his father and mother, and they will solemnly celebrate and chant and cause to be celebrated and chanted by themselves in the conventual church and by the rector and other ministers in the parish church of St. Nicholas, Colchester, with solemn tolling of bells, both the anniversary of the abbot after his death forever and the anniversary of his father and mother and other benefactors, during his life, in the said church of St. Nicholas, and they will pay 5l. weekly to the canons and on each anniversary of the abbot they will distribute 26s. 8d. to the rector, certain ministers and officers of the two churches, the poor and the prisoners in the castle of Colchester and otherwise as specified in the writing and repair the tomb of the father and mother of the abbot when necessary. The king, for 40s. paid in the hanaper by the abbot, grants licence for the prior and convent to grant in mortmain to the abbot a rent of 10l. to be levied on their manors of Leyre de la Hay, Peldon and Aberdeen, co. Essex, whenever they shall fail in any of these things.