arrear to the soldiers of the castle and town of Calais and the cross-bowmen, carpenters, stone-cutters, feodaries, artificers and pensioners there, provided that the merchants of the realm who have made main-prize for the safe-keeping of the sea be satisfied of what has been granted to them for it by authority of Parliament.

By K. & C.

Whereas the pope has granted to Robert Thurgarton, bachelor in theology, certain graces and provisions, viz. a canonical under expectation of a prebend and a dignity, parsonage or office in the church of Lincoln at the disposal of the bishop or the chapter, the king pardons the trespass and grants licence for the execution of the bull.

By K.

Grant, with the assent of the lords spiritual and temporal of the realm, to the merchants of Florence dwelling in the realm that they shall pay only 5s. for the subsidy on each sack of wool and every 240 wool-fells shipped by them out of the realm from 1 February last, instead of 53s. 4d., as is contained in the statute and grant in the last Parliament at Coventre.

By p. et. in Parl.

Whereas Roger Fissher of Crukern and Agnes his wife and John his son lately acquired for life from Edward Courtenay, earl of Devon, two messuages, a garden and a moiety of a virgate and a moiety of an acre of land in Crukern, co. Somerset, held of the king in chief, and entered therein without licence, the king, for a mark paid in the hanaper by the said Roger, pardons the trespasses in this.

By p.s.

Pardon to William Goode of Tettesworth for all felonies committed by him except treason, murder and rape.

By p.s.

Protection with clause _columnas_, for one year, for Thomas Talbot, 'chivaler,' staying on the king's service in the company of the king's son Thomas de Lancaster, steward of England, lieutenant in Ireland, on the safe-keeping of that land.

By bill of p.s.

Pardon to William Jakson of Alnewyk for all treasons, insurrections and rebellions committed by him and for killing William Symson on Sunday after Corpus Christi, 6 Henry IV.

By p.s.

Licence for John Coulyng, Thomas Noreys and John Gymne to grant in mortmain a messuage in Oxford called 'Checkerhalle' and another messuage in the same town called 'Gyngynersplace,' held of the king in burgage and worth 20s. yearly, as appears by an inquisition taken before Peter de Besydes, escheator in the county of Oxford, to the rector and scholars of the House of Stapeldon, Oxford, to hold to the value of 2 marks yearly, in part satisfaction of a licence by letters patent of Edward [11].

Grant to John Peerynt and Henry Mulsho of the keeping of John son and heir of William Payn, tenant in chief, and of all lands late of the said William during the minority of the said heir with his marriage without disparagement to the value of 12 marks yearly, provided that they answer for any surplus, and so from heir to heir, so that they find a competent maintenance for the heir, keep the houses and buildings without waste and support all other charges.

By K.