Exemplification, at the request of Thomas Brabazon, whom the king has presented to the church of Wynterborn Monketon, in the diocese of Salisbury, of the tenors of the following:—

1. A writ dated 3 May, 7 Henry IV, directed to the king's clerk Master John Chamdeker, dean of the cathedral church of Salisbury, enquiring whether the church of Stokwode, in the same diocese, of his immediate jurisdiction, is a benefice with or without cure or compatible or incompatible with another benefice with cure: as the king understands that John Tomelyn, chaplain, after he was canonically instituted and inducted to the said church of Wynterborn Monketon was admitted, instituted and inducted to the said church of Stokwode, by which the right of presentation to the said church of Wynterborn Monketon has come to the king.

2. The answer of the dean: The church of Stokwode, of my immediate jurisdiction, is a benefice with cure and incompatible with another benefice with cure.

Grant, by the advice of the great council, to Thomas Weston, Richard Holm, clerks, and Peter de la Hay, esquire, and the other executors of the will of W. late bishop of Durham, who have lent to the king 1000 marks and delivered them by the king's command to Thomas Nevyle, lord of Furnycall, treasurer of England, to be expended on the defence of the English church and the realm by the ordinance of the king and the said council, that they shall have repayment at the quinamme of Martinmas next of the said sum from the first moneys from a moiety of the tenth granted to the king by the prelates and clergy of the province of Canterbury in their last convocation, at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stowe, in the diocese of Lincoln.
