and clergy of the province of Canterbury in their last convocation from every chaplain, secular or religious, even from those hitherto not accustomed to pay tenths, and to answer for the same at the Exchequer; as the king understands that many of these dwell in religious houses or other exempt and privileged places or wander about and refuse to pay.

The like for the abbot and convent of the monastery of St. Mary de Pratis, Leycestre, appointed by Philip, bishop of Lincoln, in the archdeaconries of Leicester and Northampton.

The like for the abbot of Westerham, the abbot of Wendelyng and Master Maurice Campedan, parson of the church of Folsham, official of the archdeacon of Norfolk, appointed by Henry, bishop of Norwich, in the archdeaconry of Norfolk.

Sept. 27. Westminster.

Grant to the king’s clerk John Wakeryng of the prebend of Thame in the cathedral church of Lincoln.

By K.

Grant, with the assent of the council, to Richard, lord of Grey, and his heirs and assigns, in lieu of grants to him by letters patent dated 4 March and 6 July, 5 Henry IV (see Vol. II, p. 408), surrendered, of two inns late of Henry Percy the son in the parish of St. Anne within the ward of Aldrichegate Within, London, to hold with shops, solars, closes, gardens, and all other easements and necessaries from the day of the forfeiture of the said Henry without rendering anything to the king, notwithstanding that by virtue of the former letters patent in the time when William Askham was mayor and escheator of London they were extended at 5l. 6s. 8d. yearly and on this account he has been charged to answer for this at the Exchequer.

Vacated because in the ninth year.

MEMBRANE 7.

Grant, by advice of the great council, to Henry, bishop of Winchester, who has lent to the king 600l. and delivered them to Thomas Nevyle, lord of Furnyvall, treasurer of England, to be expended on the defence of the English church and the realm by the ordinance of the king and the said council, that he shall have repayment of the same from the first moneys from the first moiety of the tenth granted to the king by the prelates and clergy of the province of Canterbury in their last convocation at the hands of the collectors, viz. 100l. in the archdeaconry of Berks, 800l. in the archdeaconry of Winchester, 100l in the archdeaconry of Surrey and 100l. in the archdeaconry of Oxford. [Feder.] By K. & C.

Like grant of repayment to John Hende, citizen of London, who has lent 1,000l. to the king, at Martinmas next, of 128l. at the hands of the collectors in the diocese of Canterbury, 100l. at the hands of John, bishop of Ely, 100 marks at the hands of the collectors in the diocese of Chichester, 80l. at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconry of Middlesex, 46s. 8d. at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconry of Essex, 108l. at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconry of Chichester, 188l. at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stowe, 223l. at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconry of Leicester, 80l. at the hands of the collectors in the diocese of Worcester and 24l. at the hands of the collectors in the archdeaconry of Salop.

By K. & C.