Whereas Roger, late earl of March, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Maylagh, co. Meath, and demised it to Edward Peers, at which time it was greatly wasted by the king's Irish enemies and rebels, and it has now come into the king's hands by reason of the minority of Edmund de Mortymor, son and heir of the said Roger; the king with the assent of his son Thomas, lieutenant in Ireland, and in consideration of the great costs and labours of the said Edward in the defence and repair of the manor grants to him the manor, extended at 18l. 7s., at the Exchequer, to hold during the minority of the said Edmund, and so from heir to heir, without rendering anything to the king. By K.

Grant to Master George de Mondelis, doctor in physic, of the prebend of Gyvendale alias Skelton in the collegiate church of Rypyn, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the archbishopric of York being in his hands.

Mandate in pursuance to the guardian of the spirituality of the archbishopric, the see being vacant.

Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

Protection, for one year, for Henry Clerk of Estgremewych, master of a ship called la Eleue of London, of which the king's kinsman Edward, duke of York, is owner, with the said ship and his goods and merchandise going to and returning from any ports within the king's jurisdiction.

Whereas Nicholas Colir, Patrick Molyn, Thomas Henxtle and William Dadesham lately acquired from Patrick Evard to themselves and their heirs a messuage, 21 acres of land and one rood of meadow in Karampton, held in chief, and entered therein without licence; the king, for 10s. paid in the hamper, pardons the trespass in this.

Whereas pope Innocent has made a grace and provision to Thomas Canle, master in arts and scholar in theology of the University of Oxford, of a benefice at the disposal of the bishop, prior and convent of the cathedral church of Ely, the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the bull.

Grant to the king's servants William Taunt, William Contrevere, Peter Brene, Hanekyn Maselyn and Hankyn Mewes, the king's takeners, of 10l. pertaining to the king because John Bewle alias Godelsymyth alias Cotiller of Sherbck, co. Lincoln, and John Perle of Northmerston, taken on suspicion of felony and detained in the king's prison of Bedford, escaped from the same, as was adjudged before John Cokayn and his fellows, justices of gaol-delivery on Thursday before Easter last.

Presentation of John Osbarn to the church of Cardynan, in the diocese of Exeter.

Mandate to the escheator in the county of Middlesex for the restitution of the temporalities of the bishopric of London to the king's clerk Nicholas, elect of London, late archdeacon of Dorset, whom the pope has appointed bishop on the voidance of the cathedral church of St. Paul, London, by the death of Roger, late bishop, and who has renounced everything prejudicial to the king in the papal bull and whose fealty the king has taken.
