Grante, with the assent of the council, in consideration of the great losses and destructions sustained by the priory of Ewenny, which is of the foundation of the king's progenitors and of the king's patronage, in tenements, woods and other places pertaining to it by the Welsh rebels and by the king's lieges at the time when the king was there with his army, to Hugh Morton, late (sic) prior of the said priory, in aid and relief of the same and of the monks there, of the alien priory of Langynnith in Gower to hold for ten years to himself or to those who shall have the governance of the priory of Ewenny after him without rendering anything to the king, notwithstanding that before the rebellion of the Welsh 20l. were paid yearly to the king for the farm of the said alien priory.

Nov. 8. Westminster. Presentation of Richard White, chaplain, to the vicarage of Fithard, co. Tipperary, in the diocese of Cashel in Ireland.

Nov. 4. Westminster. Pardon to Peter Bagot of Crathorne for all treasons and felonies committed by him. By p.s.

Nov. 6. Westminster. Grant by mainprize of William Neville and John Maples to Geoffrey Louther and John Foljambe of all goods late of Hugh Sturmy, parson of the church of Estbriggeford, outlawed on a plea of debt in the county of Nottingham at the suit of William Greneak and William Berneak, to hold at the appraisement made by inquisition before the escheator. By bill of the treasurer.

Nov. 8. Westminster. Richard Wodecoc, citizen and 'saltar' of London, staying in England, has letters nominating Nicholas Whyte and John Whyte his attorneys in Ireland for one year. John de Hertipole, clerk, received the attorneys.

Nov. 8. Westminster. Whereas pope Innocent has granted a grace and provision to John Crane, master in arts and bachelor in decrees of the University of Oxford and parson of the church of Haukerst, in the diocese of Canterbury, of a canonry at the disposal of the bishop of Chichester and the dean and chapter of the same church, the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the bull. By p.s.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Whereas the pope has made a provision to the king's clerk, Richard Prentys, dean of the king's chapel within the household, of a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church of Lincoln, the king pardons the trespass in this and grants licence for the execution of the bull. By p.s.

Nov. 2. Westminster. Grant for life, with the assent of the council, to John Whitlok, yeoman of the king's son John, for his good service to the king's father and the king and his said son, of all lands, goods and possessions late of Hugh Tankard of Burbigg and forfeited to the king by reason of his rebellion in the company of the archbishop of York and the earl Marshal, to hold to the value of 5 marks yearly, provided that he answer for any surplus at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Nov. 8. Westminster. Pardon to John South alias Chapman alias Maas, lately indicted of having on Saturday after St. Peter ad Vincula last robbed Robert London, servant of John Dene, at Pottenhith, co. Surrey, of a horse of 'dun' colour with a saddle and bridle worth 20s. 8d., bound him hand and foot and let him lie there and of being a common thief and highwayman, and convicted of the said felonies by inquisition. By K.