1406.

Nov. 25. Westminster.

Exemplification, at the request of the king's kinsman Edward, duke of York, and Philippa his wife and the king's kinswoman Elizabeth, countess of Salisbury, of the tenour of the enrolment on the rolls of Chancery of 29 [rectius 33] Edward I of a recognition dated 31 March by John de Mohun of Dunsterre that he owes 10,000l. to John de Segrave the elder, to be paid in instalments of 1,000l. yearly at Michaelmas or in default to be levied on his lands and chattels in the counties of Somerset, Berks and Warwick. [Close Roll, 33 Edw. I. m. 18d.]

Nov. 27. Westminster.

Pardon to Philip Flynt for the death of John Aleyn brother of Andrew Aleyn.

By K.

Whereas Edward Despenser, late lord of Glamorgan, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Morton, co. Lincoln, with other possessions and granted the said manor with others to John Talbot, 'chivaler,' Lambert de Weston, 'chivaler,' William Strete, John de Thorpe and Thomas son of Thomas de Pynhebek, they rendering yearly to him and his heirs 10 marks from the said manor, so that if the rent should be fifteen days in arrear he and his heirs might re-enter into the manor and retain all goods and chattels in it until they were satisfied, and the said John and others were seised of the manor accordingly, and afterwards the said Edward on Martinmas, 49 Edward III, died seised of certain lands held of the said king in chief by knight service, Thomas his son and heir being then of the age of two years, and the said king seised the body of the said Thomas and all lands which should descend to him on the death of his father, and afterwards the said Thomas being of full age in 1 Henry IV rose in insurrection against the king and was adjudged a traitor at the Parliament of 2 Henry IV and consequently the said rent pertains to the king as forfeited with arrears after the death of Edward because it has not been paid since and the manor has been taken into the king's hands according to the form of the grant until the king shall be satisfied of the arrears; the king, with the assent of the council and for 100l. paid in his chamber by William Lodyngton and Robert Pudesey by the hands of Thomas, lord of Fournyvale, treasurer of England, grants to them and their heirs and assigns the said manor, rent and arrears, provided that if the rent or any parcel thereof shall be recovered against them they shall have recompense.

Nov. 20. Westminster.

Licence, for 40 marks paid in the manors by John Cobeham, knight, and Thomas Remyg, for them to cut off Joan late the wife of Walter Fitz Wauter, knight, of the manors of Reydon, Asshedon, Dunmore and Henham and the third part of the advowson of the church of Asshedon, co. Essex, and the third part of the manor of Thurston, co. Suffolk, held in chief, to hold to herself and the heirs of her body by the said Walter with remainder to his right heirs.

Dec. 3. Westminster.

Commission, by mainprise of John Eware of the county of Essex and Stephen Ingledfield of the same county, to Richard Redman, 'chivaler,' on an agreement made between him and Thomas de Newelond, lord of Furnevall, treasurer of England, in furtherance of letters patent dated 27 May last, of the keeping of all lands late of Richard Newelond during the minority of John his son and heir with the marriage of the latter without disparagement, rendering to the king 10 marks, finding a competent maintenance for the heir, maintaining the houses and buildings and supporting all charges.

By bill of the treasurer.

Nov. 18. Westminster.

Grant to the mayor, bailiffs and commonalty of the city of Coventre, for the estate, good governance, peace and tranquillity of the city and the king's lieges in it, that there shall be no more gilds or fraternities within the city or the precinct of the same than at present.

By p.s.