MEMBRANE 17.

Nov. 29. Westminster.

Licence for the customers and collectors of the subsidy of the 12l. on the pound in the port of Southampton, as the tonnage of wools in the port is exercised in a house there distant from the bridge called ‘la wollebrugge’ to the harm of the king and merchants and the same tonnage can suffice for the weighing of wools and all bales, spices, wax and other goods sold by weight, to remove the tonnage from the house where it is at present and place it in another nearer the bridge and more convenient, so that the owner of this other house shall have such payment from the merchants for its hire as has been accustomed to be paid. By K.

Licence, for 20 marks paid in the hamper by Robert Grey of Bemynstre, for him to grant in mortmain two messuages, 40 acres of land, 12 acres of meadow and 10 acres of wood in Bemynstre, not held of the king, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Mary and St. Inthwara in the church of St. Mary, Bemynstre, for the good estate of the king and the said Robert and Christiana his wife and for their souls after death and the souls of their fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, ancestors and benefactors.

Nov. 18. Westminster.

Grant, with the assent of the council, to Richard Courtenay, clerk, son and heir of Philip de Courtenay, ‘chivaler,’ that he may enter into and hold all manors, lands, fees and advowsons of which Peter Courtenay, ‘chivaler,’ and the said Philip severally died seised and of which he is heritable, notwithstanding that it was found by inquisition taken in the counties of Devon, Somerset and Dorset that some of the same were held of the king in chief and these were accordingly taken into the king’s hands. By K. & C.

Dec. 10. Westminster.

Commission, during pleasure, to John Pollowe of the office of controller of the great and petty custom, the subsidy of wools, hides and wool-fells and the subsidy of the 8s. on each tun of wine and the 12l. on the pound in the port of Exeter and all ports and places from thence on one side to Sydemouth and there and on the other side to the west by the county of
