archbishop of Canterbury, now chancellor, in a case before him concerning the tenths, rents and other profits belonging to the canons and prebends of Ketene and Coupes between John Tylton, canon of the said chapel and prebendary of Coupes in the same, plaintiff, and the said Thomas, defendant, in which after a libel had been put in on the part of John and received by Thomas the commissary refused to hear the petition of Thomas for a re-examination of the witnesses of John. The chancellor, to whom the visitation of the chapel and the hearing of the appeal pertain by his office, is too much occupied on arduous business of the king to hear the appeal.

April 20.
Westminster

Appointment, during pleasure, of William Chamberlein, deputy of the king's clerk Robert Rolleston, clerk of the works, to be surveyor of the same works at all castles, manors, lodges, parks and mills of the king within the realm and to take stone-cutters, carpenters and other workmen and labourers, and stone, timber, tiles, shingles, iron, glass, lead and other necessaries and carriage for the same, to arrest and imprison all who rebel, to bring back necessaries carried away and to sell by view of the said William boughs, bark and other residues of trees.

By bill of the said Robert.

Thomas Segg
William Peres.

July 2.
Westminster

By bill of the said Robert.

Thomas Beeston.

MEMBRANE 22

Grant, with the advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal and the commons of the realm in the present Parliament, to the king's kinsfolk Philippa late wife of Robert de Veer, late duke of Ireland, and Richard son and heir of Aubrey de Vere, late earl of Oxford, and the heirs of Philippa of the manors of Langelie and Bradley, co. Berks, the reversion of the manors of Milton and Paston, co. Northampton, the reversion of the manor of Chesham, co. Buckingham, with a view of frank-pledge of all tenants within the town of Chesham, both strange tenants and tenants of the manor, the reversion of the manor of Market Overton, co. Rutland, and the reversion of a toft, 15 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow and 20 rent in Cowley, co. Buckingham, not exceeding the value of 120l. yearly and in the king's hands on 1 March, 2 Henry IV, and still, by the forfeiture of the said Robert; of whichJohn Holand, esquire, holds the manors of Milton and Paston for life of the king's grant, and Maud, countess of Oxford, held at the time of the forfeiture of the said duke the manor of Chesham and view in fee tail after the possibility of issue extinct of the grant of John de Veer, late earl of Oxford, and Maud his wife to Thomas sometime her husband and herself and the heirs male of their bodies by fine levied in the court of Edward III, and the manor of Marketoverton for life and the toft, land, meadow and rent in dower of the endowment of Thomas her said husband; notwithstanding that the said countess has made any demise or alienation of the manors of Chesham and Marketoverton, view, toft, land, meadow and rent; provided that all grants or sales made by the king or Richard II before the said 1 March of any of the premises shall remain in strength.

By K.

March 9.
Westminster

Pardon to John Perkyns of Warmeleye, indicted of having on Friday in Easter week, 5 Henry IV, at Sutton in a lane within Munworth and Overton Brigge in the hundred of Huml', co. Warwick, killed one John Hertthull about the fourth hour after noonday.

By p.s.