May 22. Westminster. Grant to John Bathe of the prebend of Cherdestoke in the cathedral church of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric of Salisbury being in his hands. By p.s.

May 27. Westminster. Licence, for 13s. 1d. paid in the hanaper by William Maunby, vicar of the church of Holungbourne, for John Blakewell, clerk, Valentine Bareto and Henry Folivile to grant to him in mortmain a messuage in Holungbourne opposite the north side of the church, not held of the king, for his habitation.

May 31. Westminster. Mandate to all mayors and others to permit all men and tenants in the town of Otery St. Mary, co. Devon, which is of the ancient demesne of the crown, as appears by a certificate sent into Chancery of Edward III by the treasurer and chamberlains and on the files of Chancery of the year 35 Edward III, to be quit of toll according to the approved custom.

Whereas pope Gregory has made to Nicholas de Ryssheston, doctor of either law and auditor of causes of the apostolic palace, graces to canonries under expectation of prebends in the cathedral churches of Salisbury or Lincoln and to a dignity, parsonage, administration or office in one of the said churches; the king pardons the trespass in this and his acceptance of a canonry and prebend in the church of Salisbury and a dignity in the church of Lincoln, and grants licence for the execution of the bull; and also confirms to him the pardon and grant made to him on 11 November.
