a moiety of the manor of Bulkington, co. Wilts, held in chief, and for these to re-enforce him and Beatrice his wife of the same for life, with remainder to his right heirs.

For 20 marks paid in the hanaper, and because the king before granted that it should be had without fine.

Licence, for 20 marks paid in the hanaper by Alice late the wife of Robert Surry, "chivaler," for her to found a chantry of two chaplains to celebrate divine service in the chapel of St. Anne in the parish church of Hampton Lovet for the souls of herself and her ancestors and to grant to the chaplains in mortmain 20 marks yearly of land and rent, not held in chief; as she has shown the king that she sued an assize of novel disseisin against Maud late the wife of Robert atte Grene, Henry son of the said Maud and others concerning lands and meadows in Truxley and Rye, co. Gloucester, late of John Blount, "chivaler," her father, of which she was seised by hereditary descent until she was disseised by them, which assize is still pending in delay before Hugh Huls and Roger Horton because Maud sought the king of aid, affirming that the reversion was in the king and his heirs, and on this she sued to the council of the duchy of Lancaster because the lands and meadows were claimed to be parcel of the duchy, where she afterwards showed evidences that the king had no right in the same, and afterwards it was agreed between the said council and herself that she should release to the king and his heirs all that she had in the said lands and meadows and also grant all other lands and rents which she has in Truxley and Rye and in Chadlesley, co. Worcester, and the king should grant licence for her to found a chantry of one chaplain in the said chapel.

Whereas Robert Shirwynd, mercer of London, was lately appointed with Richard Stile collector of the subsidy of 3s, on each tun of wine and 15l, on the pound in the port of the city and they rendered their accounts from 25 May, 5 Henry IV, until 11 December following, by which 29l. 18s. 11d. were due from the monies received by him from the subsidy, and the king in consideration of the losses sustained by him through the insufficiency of divers persons bound to pay the subsidy and otherwise granted that he might pay the said sum in instalments of 20 marks yearly.
