MEMORIANES 19 and 18.

Grant for life to the king's esquire and servant James Hoget of an annuity of 10l. from the issues of the manor and lordship of Tyderlay and Lokerley, co. Southampton, as John Alyn had in his lifetime. By p.s.

Presentation of Nicholas Hoper alias Lecche, vicar of the church of Chilterne Dommer, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the church of Holford, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Brunyng.

Licence, for 100s. paid in the hanaper by Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, Joan Bohun, countess of Hereford, Richard Waldgrave, 'chivaler,' Gerard Braybrock, 'chivaler,' William Marny, 'chivaler,' Robert de Teye, Robert Roke, Thomas Martell and Richard Wythermescsh, for them to found a chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in a chapel built in the island called Foulnesse, co. [Essex], and to grant in mortmain to the chaplain a rood of land on which the chapel is situated, an acre of land for his mansion to be built upon and a messuage and certain land and marsh called Ledebourwerde containing 80 acres of fresh land and 160 acres of salt marsh and 33s. 4d. rent from the manor of Foulnesse, held in chief.

Presentation of Richard Hulle, canon of the cathedral church of Wells and prebendary of Combe Quinta in the same, to the church of Wotton Courtenay, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, on an exchange of benefices with John Hody.

Inspectuosius and confirmation to the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Mary, Osprenge, of a charter dated 30 January, 8 Richard II (Chart. Roll, 7 and 8 Richard II, No. 3), inspecting and confirming with additions letters patent dated 25 July, 2 Richard II, inspecting and confirming earlier charters and letter patent. For 40s. paid in the hanaper.

Grant to certain merchants of Genoa, in lieu of a grant to them by other letters patent (see p. 385), which the king's son Thomas, the king's lieutenant in Ireland, has surrendered, that they may ship wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of Southampton and take the sum of 600l. from the custom and subsidy of the same in full payment of 600l. due to them by the king's said son and in deduction of that amount due to him by the king. By p.s.

Grant for life to Robert de Strangways, in lieu of a grant to him by letters patent dated 4 October, 7 Henry IV (see p. 85), surrendered, of the office of keeper of the gate of the castle of Karlill from that date, receiving 4d. daily from the issues of the county of Cumberland. By K.

March 2. Westminster.

Commission to Thomas Chaucier, chief butler, to take to the king's use the king's prises of any wines brought to the port of Kyngeston on Hull both in pipes and in tuns and to receive from all who resist or refuse to deliver the prises securities that they will appear in person before the king and council at certain days to be fixed by him or his deputies, and to keep all wines taken as prises in safe custody. The king's progenitors by