1407.

as a grant to them by letters patent dated 1 June, 7 Henry IV, cannot take effect on account of an ordinance in the last Parliament at Westminster, and in consideration of their great expenses, and because the abbey and priory are of the patronage of the king's kinsman Edmund, earl of Kent, and his ancestors are buried within the abbey.

By p.s.

1408.

Jan. 21.
Westminster.

Mandate to all admirals and others to permit Robert Russell to take a crayer called la Marie of Combe, of which Patrick Laweles is master, laden with wine, salt and other merchandise with its mariners for its governance to Ireland and bring back salmon and other victuals to England after payment of the customs, subsidies and other moneys due to the king.

1407.

Dec. 6.
Gloucester.

Grant to the king's knight Henry Lescrope, son and heir of Stephen Lescrope of Massacham, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, of all issues from the lands late of the said Stephen from the time of his death, which were taken into the king's hands and which the king has caused to be delivered to him out of Chancery.

By K.

1408.

Westminster.

Licence for John Colyville, 'chivaler,' to grant in mortmain 40 acres of land in Walsokene, Walton and Emmenebe, co. Norfolk, and 6 messuages, 50 acres of land and 60 acres of moor with a fishery of the same called Lylyfeld in Neweton, Laveryngton, Wysebeche and Elme and the fishery called Deepwere in Wysebeche, not held of the king, worth 110s. yearly, as appears by inquisitions taken before William Rees, late escheator in the said county, and John Wynter, late escheator in the county of Cambridge, to the master or warden and the chaplains of the chantry of the chapel of St. Mary, Neweton, to hold to the value of 10 marks in part satisfaction of a licence by letters patent.

Jan. 28.
Westminster.

Grant to the bailiffs and good men of the town of Lodlowe of murage for ten years.

Westminster.

Pardon to Robert Vescy of Westbretton for having on the feast of St. Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, 5 Henry IV, at Westbretton struck William de Rodys with a 'dager' in the left side and so killed him.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 16.

Jan. 28.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's son John de Lancaster and his heirs, in consideration of his having kept the castles at his own cost after the forfeiture of the earl of Northumberland without reward, of the castle and constabulary of the town of Jeddeworth and the towns of Jeddeworth, Bondieddeworth and Hassynden and the forest of Jeddeworth and all lands belonging to the above with knights' fees, advowsons, hundreds, markets, fairs, chaces, warrens, free fisheries, lordships, royalties, royal liberties, free customs and other things by the service of one goshawk yearly; and also 500 marks yearly from the new and old custom of the town of Berwick on Tweed and the keeping of the castle of Berwick on Tweed, receiving for it 100 marks yearly in time of peace and 200 yearly in time of war, until he shall be provided by the king with 500 marks of land or rent yearly.

By K.

Memorandum that the letters are void and null so far as concerns the keeping of the castle of Berwick and the yearly receipt of 100 marks or 200, by the surrender by the said John by the name of John, duke of Jeddeford, of the same to Henry IV as appears by letters patent of the duke enrolled on the dorse of the Close Roll of Chancery, 5 Henry VI, by force of letters of priory seal dated 16 February, 5 Henry VI, and delivered to the treasurer to be kept in the treasury.