Affirmation that the collations of all priories, bailiwicks, preceptories and other possessions greater and less pertaining to the master and convent of the Hospital of Rodes within the king's realms and lordships belong to the same master and convent, and restoration of Peter Holt, turcopler of Rodes, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in Ireland, to his possession of this hospital; as he has shewn the king that when at the king's last advent into England he was at Rodes on divine service and religion and had full possession of the hospital by title of the master and convent, one Robert White, his obedientiary, by maintenance of the earl of Ormond, deceased, expelled him and detained the hospital without title from the master and convent until lately he demised it to one Thomas Butiller of the same religion, who detains it at present. [Federata.]

Exemplification, at the request of Thomas, abbot of Tewkesbury, of a writing of Edmund de Mortuo Mari, earl of March and Ulster, lord of Clare, Trim and Connaught, dated at Trym, 12 September, 5 Richard II, exemplifying, under the seal used in his royal liberty of Meath, the following:

1. A charter of Robert son of Hamo, with the consent of Sibyl his wife, notifying all in Dorset that he has granted to the church of St. Mary, St. Peter and St. Bartholomew, Cranborne, the tithe in the same manor from all his demesne. Witnesses:—Pharistus, abbot of Abbendon, Gilbert de Offramvilla, Robert de Haya, Roger son of Gezi.

2. A charter of Robert son of Haymo granting to St. Mary of Tewkesbury wherever it has land of his fee such liberty as he has himself and his lord gave to him and common of pasture with animals. Witnesses:—Geoffrey de Maiseo, Aschio the constable, Robert the chaplain.

3. A charter of William, earl of Gloucester, granting to the monks of St. Mary, Tewkesbury, for the health of the souls of himself and Hawysia his wife and his ancestors and successors, the manors of Upwymborne, Tarent Monachorum, Chetel and Bowerugge, co. Dorset, and the two manors of Middellond and Losehore, co. Devon, with various liberties.

4. A charter of William, earl of Gloucester, dated at Warham, 21d Jan., 1148, confirming to the abbot and monks of St. Mary, Tewkesbury, all the grants made to them by Robert son of Haymo his grandfather and Robert the earl (consul) his father. Witnesses:—Reginald de Chaynn, Falk son of Gvarin, Booland de Valonius, Roger de Gowiz, Picard the clerk, Peter de Saltmar, Agellinus de Porbiaga, Arnald Britonius.

5. A charter of Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hereford (sic), confirming to them, for the safety of his soul and the souls of Gilbert de Clare his father and Isabel [his mother] and his ancestors, all their possessions which they had from the time of his ancestor Robert son of Haymo, who founded their church, and granting various liberties.

Pardon to William son of Thomas Palfrayman, indicted of having on Monday before St. Margaret the Virgin, 5 Henry IV, at Whitewell hall in ambush and assaulted and tried to kill Thomas son of Adam de Wynfelde and struck Adam with a knife worth 1d. in the side when he came to rescue his son, from which he died.