1408. Westminster.

Grant, at the supplication of the king's son Thomas, the king's lieutenant in Ireland, to certain merchants of Florence of licence to ship wools, hides, and woollen fells in the port of Southampton, and grant to certain merchants of Genoa of 6000l. from the custom and subsidy of the same in lieu of another grant to them by letters patent (see p. 3855), surrendered because they have not shipped any wools in the said port and do not intend to do so.

By p.s.

Grant to the citizens of York of manure for two years.

Grant, with the assent of the council, that, as by an indenture made between the king and his son Thomas de Lancastere under the privy seal of this date, by which he is bound to serve the king with his retinue on the safe-keeping of the land of Ireland from 1 May next for three years, the king assigned to him the sum of 7000 marks (of which he has received 1500 marks in part payment for the first year) and the sum of 8000l. in arrears of the old debt for the keeping of that land in each of the said three years, he shall have all sums of money thus assigned to him for the first year as follows:
