Licence for the prior and convent of Friars Hermits of the order of St. Augustine, Canterbury, to build new houses and buildings on their own soil adjoining the king's highway within the city and acquired by them by royal licence and to demise at farm the houses and buildings so built and a messuage and a garden in the parish of St. George, Canterbury, adjoining their manse and acquired by royal licence for its enlargement, and to receive the moneys from the farm in aid of the maintenance and repair of their church and other houses and buildings and the payment of quit rents and other charges.

Licence, for 5 marks paid in the hanaper by Richard Arundell, esquire, Simon Felbrig, esquire, Robert Teye, Richard Colfox, John Coburley, clerk, and Henry Keston, for them to grant the manor of Wollere and three knights' fees in Forde, Crowkon, Kynnerston, Baynmore, Dychand, Ulcestre, Wartung, Unthunk and Wollere, co. Northumberland, pertaining to the manor, held in chief, to Thomas Grey of Heton and his heirs.

Pardon to the king's liege and tenant Elias son of Thomas Skynner of Blith for the death of one William Brandon, late parson of the church of Dynyngton, co. York, on 7 April, 8 Henry IV, in the fields of Hodlesake.

William Aylngton, esquire, going on the king's service to Ireland in the company of the king's son Thomas de Lancaster, steward of England, lieutenant of Ireland, has letters nominating John Beverache and William Giffard his attorneys in England for one year.

John Roderham received the attorneys until the return of the nominator to England.

He also has like letters nominating Thomas Lopham and John Multon of Westryngton. The same John Roderham received the attorneys.

Protection with clause collumna for half a year, for Robert Redyngton, esquire, staying on the king's service in the company of the king's son Henry, prince of Wales, the king's lieutenant in South and North Wales, on the safe-keeping of those parts.

Grant for life, with the assent of the council, to the king's knight Ralph Rocheford, the king's sewer, of the castle, manor and lordship of Somerton.

Grant for life to the king's esquire Hugh Malgrave of the office of the king's dogs called 'les haireres,' with all due fees and wages as Adam Ransey, deceased, had.

Vacated because elsewhere and under another form in this year.

Presentation of John Barnard, prebendary of South Scarle in the cathedral church of Lincoln, to the church of Blecelehe, in the diocese of Lincoln, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Lyes, parson of Blecehele and prebendary of Wetton in the collegiate church of Aukeland, in the diocese of Durham.

Presentation of Roger Whytyng, chaplain, to the church of St. Paneras by Axemouth, in the diocese of Exeter, vacant by the resignation of John Wastes, chaplain.

Pardon, at the supplication of the archbishop of York, to Richard Laverok of Hexhamshire for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions and felonies committed by him, except murder, rape and common larceny.

The like to the following:

Robert Laverok of Hexhamshire.
Patrick Laverok of Hexhamshire.