Memorand 23—cont.

1408.
Feb. 20.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's kinsman Richard of York, to whom Richard II granted 233l. 6s. 8d. yearly for life at the Exchequer by letters patent, confirmed by the king, that he shall have the same yearly with all arrears at the hands of Edward Charleton, lord of Powys, farmer of the manors and lands which Eleanor, late the wife of Roger, late earl of March, and late the wife of the said Edward, held in dower of the lands late of the earl in England, during the minority of Edmund son and heir of the earl from the farm which he renders for the same, and afterwards at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

May 31.
Westminster.

Pardon to the king's esquire John Merssh of 100l, incurred because one Gregory Henham, a robber, escaped from his keeping on 22 December last.

By p.s.

June 12.
Westminster.

Protection with clause qualitatem for one year, for John Gloucester, esquire, going on the king's service to Ireland in the company of the king's son Thomas de Lancaster, steward of England, lieutenant of Ireland, on the safe-keeping of those parts.

By bill of p.s.

May 20.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's concubine the queen, in part deduction of 10000 marks yearly granted to her for life in dower, and because of an ordinance in the late Parliament at Coventre, of certain possessions which Anne, late queen of England, held in dower or otherwise for life; viz. the manor of Havering at Foure, co. Essex, to the value of 70l. remaining beyond 50l. to which value she had the manor and the herbage and pannage there before of the king's grant, which manor was afterwards extended at 100l. yearly; the castle of Devyses, worth nothing yearly beyond reprises; a yearly rent of 8s. from the borough of Devyses, two parks there, certain lands called 'Parklonde,' the manor of Roude and other profits from the issues of the forests of Melfesham and Penecham; the manor of Cosham with two parks there and other appurtenances to the value of 66l. yearly; with vicinage from Michaelmas, 5 Henry IV; 23l. 6s. 8d. from the fee-farm of the town of Shrewsbury remaining beyond 10 marks granted by the king for 20 years to the priestess and convent of St. Mary's, Chester; the manor of Odiham to the value of 25l. 2s. 4d. yearly remaining beyond 30l. which Roger Syglyme, knight, has yearly thence for the life of himself and Katharine his wife of the grant of the said late queen; 200l. from the fee-farm of the town of Southampton; 9l. 2s. 6d. from the fee-farm of the town of Ipswich, co. Suffolk, remaining beyond 50l. 17s. 6d. previously granted to her with issues from Easter, 6 Henry IV; the manor of Woddon and Weston alias the manor of Woddon Pynkeney to the value of 17l. 6s. 8d. yearly; the castle or manor of Morenscote, co. Northampton, to the value of 20 marks yearly remaining beyond 20 marks which William Diggeley has thence yearly for life of the grant of the said late queen; the manor of Weston Turville to the value of 11l. yearly; the manor of Hogeston to the value of 4l. yearly; rents of divers tenants in Wendover to the value of 50s. yearly; the manor of Bechampton to the value of 10l. yearly; rents in Great and Little Hordwode to the value of 16s. 8d. yearly; a rent of 5l. in Lanegle Marreys; the manor of Kyemell, co. Buckingham, to the value of 12l. 6s. 8d. yearly; 15l. remaining beyond 12l. 6s. 8d. previously assigned to her by the king out of 23l. 6s. 8d. which the abbot of St. Albans, co. Hertford, is bound to render yearly to the king for the voidance of the abbey, with issues from Michaelmas, 6 Henry IV; 20l.