Membrane 6—cont.

Safe-conduct, until Midsummer, for John Seyntclere, brother of the earl of Orkencye, and John Forster, ‘chivaler,’ of Scotland, coming within the realm to the king’s presence with twelve persons in their company. By K.

Appointment of the king’s son John, constable of England and warden of ‘la Estmarche’ towards Scotland, as the king’s commissioner with full power to treat for truces between the king’s lieges and the kingdom of Scotland from Easter next for one year. [Fderea.] By K.

The like of the king’s brother Ralph, earl of Westmoreland, marshal of England and warden of ‘la Westmarche’ towards Scotland, for truces between the king’s lieges of the said march and the kingdom of Scotland. [Fderea.] By K.

MEMBRANE 5.

Commission to John Tikkyll and William Potager to sell at the best price they can divers goods late of John Hosyere alias Serveyner of London, ‘draper,’ seized as forfeited to the king at the town of St. John of Beverley for divers felonies by the said John confessed before the king in person, and to deliver the moneys therefrom to John Tiptoft, treasurer of the household, for the expenses of the household according to the late ordinance.

Safe-conduct, for one year, for John de Mountgomery, lord of Ardrossane in Scotland, with one servant in his company, staying within the realm, so that he be not molested except by reason of his expectation as hostage for the earl of Douglas. As soon as the earl after his next crossing into Scotland shall return within the castle of Durame to the keeping of the king’s son John or to the king wherever he may be within the realm, according to the form of certain indentures, or shall die, the said John with his servant shall be free from action of hostage for the earl, and the present letters shall be in force for forty days after the return or death of the earl. [Fderea.] By K.

The like for the following:—

James de Douglas, son of Archibald, earl of Douglas.
John de Edmonston, knight, of Scotland.

The like for Archibald, firstborn son of Archibald, earl of Douglas; provided that if the earl die before returning he shall be the king’s prisoner according to the form of the said indentures. [Fderea.] By K.

Protection, for three years, at the request of the king’s kinsman Archibald, earl of Douglas, for Master Alexander de Carnys, provost of the collegiate church of Lyncludane in Scotland, wherever he may be in Scotland, and the said place of Lyncludane and the poor chaplains there and his lands surrounding the church with his granges, corn, cattle and other things.

Safe-conduct, until the Purification, for Alvar Carile and Alfonso Rodrigues of Spain, coming within the realm to the king’s presence with their men and servants to the number of forty persons and their ships and the masters and mariners of the same and their horses, mules and goods. [Fderea.] By K.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Christopher de Preston, ‘chivaler,’ and Janico Dartasse as the king’s commissioners with full power to treat for peace with Donald of the Isles and John his brother. [Fderea.] By K.