

Membrane 35—cont.

1408.
Dec. 16. Westminster. John Morton, vicar of the church of Cheswardyn, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield.
- Dec. 12. Westminster. Nicholas Calton, chaplain, prebendary of Eton in the collegiate church of St. Mary, Southwelle, in the diocese of York, and parson of the parish church of Horton, in the diocese of Lincoln.
By p.s.
1409.
Jan. 8. Westminster. Master Richard Flemyng, parson of the parish church of Boston, in the diocese of Lincoln.
By p.s.
- Feb. 3. Westminster. Thomas Mareschall, parson of the church of Weston Turvile, in the diocese of Lincoln.
- Feb. 16. Westminster. Walter Bullok, parson of the parish church of Elleford, in the diocese of Lichfield.
- April 16. Westminster. Adam de Skelton, chaplain of the chantry of St. Mary in the chapel of St. Augustine, Hedon.
- March 11. Westminster. Stephen Ansteswell, parson of the church of Westethorney, co. Sussex.
By p.s.
- June 18. Westminster. Robert Tayfyn, vicar of the church of Westhamme, in the diocese of Chichester.
- June 20. Westminster. John Whitesmyth, chaplain of the chantry of the chapel of St. Mary within the king's manor of Wodestok.
- July 1. Westminster. Thomas Tredowargh, parson of the church of Westthorney, in the diocese of Chichester.
- July 2. Westminster. Thomas Laton, parson of the church of Asgardby, in the diocese of Lincoln.
- July 4. Westminster. Master John Giles, parson of the church of Elyndon alias Elynghton, in the diocese of Salisbury.
By p.s.
- July 14. Westminster. Thomas Macy, parson of the church of Compton Valence, in the diocese of Salisbury.
1408.
Oct. 18. Westminster. Pardon to John Hamond alias Willeson alias Fauconer, late falconer of Henry, late earl of Northumberland, for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions, conspiracies and felonies against the king's person.
By p.s.
- Oct. 24. Westminster. Mandate to the dean and chapter of the king's free chapel of Hastynges to install and induct John Wandestre, chaplain, to the prebend of Wratlyng, Nenenfeld and Hoo in the said chapel, vacant by the resignation of Hugh Holbache and in the king's gift, to which Robert, bishop of Chichester, has admitted and instituted him.