

Membrane 24—cont.

1409.

- March 10.
Westminster. Thomas Haseley, prebendary of the prebend which Thomas Staundon lately had in the collegiate church of St. Chad, Shrewsbury, and warden of the free chapel of Haunes, in the diocese of Lincoln, and the free chapel of Kardeston, in the diocese of Hereford. By K.
- April 6.
Westminster. John Wakeryng, archdeacon of Canterbury. By K.
- April 12.
Westminster. Master John Hovyngham, archdeacon of Durham and parson of the church of Waldegrave, in the diocese of Lincoln. By p.s.
- May 9.
Westminster. Hugh Hanworth, prebendary of Gevendale alias Skelton in the collegiate church of Rypon. By p.s.
- May 8.
Westminster. Philip Pencaer, parson of the church of Burton, in the diocese of St. Davids.
- May 13.
Westminster. Thomas Haywode, chaplain, warden of the chapel of St. Saphinus within the castle of Barnestaple, in the diocese of Exeter. By K.
- June 3.
Westminster. William Kynwolmerssh, king's clerk, warden of the hospital of St. James by Westminster, co. Middlesex. By p.s.
- Aug. 13.
Westminster. John Roules, parson of the parish church of Camelerton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells. By p.s.
- July 9.
Westminster. William Dumberell, chaplain, vicar of the church of Hurst Perpoint, in the diocese of Chichester.

1408.

- Oct. 26.
Westminster. Writ of aid for the prior of Brommore, whom Henry, bishop of Winchester, by letters patent appointed to collect a moiety of a tenth granted to the king by the clergy of the province of Canterbury in the archdeaconry of Winchester and pay it to the king at All Saints next, as certain ecclesiastical persons, both religious and secular, refuse to pay.
- Oct. 18.
Westminster. Whereas the king's knight Thomas Swynford, late sheriff of Lincoln, in the third year, in his account at the Exchequer before the treasurer and barons was charged with 144*l.* 12*s.* 4 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. for the farm called the farm of the county after terre date, 140*l.* for the farm called the farm of the county by tale and 71*l.* 10*s.* 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for the farm called the farm of the profit of the county, in which three sums he is overcharged in 135*l.* 10*s.* beyond the sum of 180*l.* which the sheriffs of the county rendered yearly at the Exchequer in the time of Richard II. for all issues belonging of old to the said three farms; the king pardons to him 116*l.* 2*s.* 9*d.* of the said sum of 135*l.* 10*s.* By p.s.
- Oct. 29.
Westminster. Pardon to Robert Paxsweyn of Moreton Pynkeneye of his outlawry in the county of Northampton for not appearing before William Thirnyng and his fellows, justices of assize in the county, to answer the king for his ransom on account of a disseisin of William Budde of Napton and Joan his wife of a tenement in Moreton Pynkeneye of