Nov. 7. Presentation of John Brese, parson of the church of Whitwell, in Westminster. the diocese of Lincoln, to the vicarage of the church of Lynton, in the diocese of Hereford, on an exchange of benefices with John White.

Nov 3. Pardon to William Taillour of Rypon for all treasons, insurrections, Westminster. rebellions and felonies committed by him; as he has informed the king that some of his enemies for malice because he was formerly with Henry, late earl of Northumberland, and bore his livery at the time when the earl was the king's faithful liege have caused him to be indicted of rebellion at York, charging him with having aided the earl at his last advent into the realm, of which indictment he was acquitted. By p.s.

Nov. 12. Pardon to John Waryn of his outlawry in the county of Middlesex Westminster. for not appearing before the king to answer for certain trespasses and extortions; he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as William Gascoigne, chief justice, has certified.

Nov. 14. Presentation of John Ludlowe, vicar of the church of Waybrigge, Westminster. in the diocese of Winchester, to the church of Alwoldby, in the diocese of Lincoln, on an exchange of benefices with John Barre.

MEMBRANE 22.

Oct. 30. Whereas Thomas de Toucton, clerk, lately sued a writ of premunire Westminster. at the suit of the king and himself against Master John Fraunceys, clerk, John Bollesore of the county of Derby, clerk, Master John Willyngham, clerk, and Master John Ragnell, clerk, touching the prebend of Stillyngton in the cathedral church of York, returned before William Gascoigne and his fellows, justices of the King's Bench, at the octave of the Purification, 7 Henry IV, and the process was continued until the said John Fraunceys, John Bollesore and John Willyngham were condemned in 300 marks damages and the said John Ragnell was placed out of the king's protection for non-appearance, and execution of the judgement was sued against them until the said John Fraunceys and John Bollesore were outlawed, and the same Thomas sued another writ of premunire at the suit of the king and himself against the said John Fraunceis and William Savage, clerk, William Lovell, clerk, and William Fraunceys, clerk, returned before the said justices at the octave of Michaelmas, 9 Henry IV, on which day they were placed out of the king's protection for non-appearance; the king, because the said John Fraunceis and John Bollesore have surrendered to the Marshalsea prison and they and John Wyllyngham have satisfied the said Thomas of the said 300 marks damages, as the said William Gascoigne has certified, pardons to the said John, John, John, John, William, William and William the contempers, trespasses, offences and misprisions committed by them and all forfeitures of their lands and goods. By p.s.
