

Membrane 19—cont.

Nov. 13. Grant for life to John Skydmore, 'chivaler,' in lieu of grants to Westminster. him and Robert Attekyns by letters patent (Vol. I., p. 490; III. p. 111), surrendered, of all lands late of William Gwyn ap Rees within the lordship of Kedewelle and forfeited to the king because he died a rebel and outlawed for felony within the lordship, the manor of Pyborn and lands of Herdewyk, granted by the king to one John Donne, esquire, of Kedewelle for life, having come into the king's hands by his death, and the lands within the said lordship late of William Gwyn ap Jevan, who was condemned to death at the town of Kermerdyn for rebellion against the king, which lands were granted to William Dyer of Ker-merdyn and the heirs of his body and have come into the king's hands because he died without such heir. By p.s.

Nov. 16. Exemplification of the tenour of the enrolment of letters patent Westminster. dated 7 November, 3 Henry IV. (see Vol. II. p. 14), granting for life to James de Haryngton 20*l.* yearly. Thomas Urswyk has personally made oath in Chancery that these letters have been accidentally lost and he will surrender the present letters if they are found.

Nov. 11. Whereas Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, lately exacted from Westminster. the dean and chapter of the church of St. Paul, London, a certain service of the office of reeveship pertaining to his manor of Wym-bildon from their manor of Bernes, co. Surrey, as of the right of Christ Church, Canterbury, and on this strife and discord arose between them and at length by the mediation of divers discreet men it was agreed that the dean and chapter should give for the service to the archbishop a rent of a sparrow-hawk or 2*s.* in its name yearly from the said manor of Bernes at the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula and a rent of 40*s.* from the said manor at Midsummer next and afterwards in every twentieth year, with power of distraint, as appears by an indenture made between them; the king grants that all these things shall be according to the agreement. By p.s.

Nov. 14. Whereas the prioress and sisters of the order of the Hospital of Westminster. St. John of Jerusalem of Bucland have shown the king how Henry [III.] by charter which the king has confirmed (Vol. III. p. 8) granted to them three cartloads of brushwood weekly for fuel in his park of Perton, now called Pederton, and they have accordingly been in peaceful possession of the same until lately the keeper there has not permitted them to have it because they are obedientiaries to the prior of the Hospital and not capable persons; the king, to the effect that they shall pray for the good estate of himself and his consort Joan and for their souls after death and the soul of his consort Mary, deceased, and for the removal of all ambiguity of the words de spinis, almo et arabile specified in the grant, grants to Walter Grendon, prior of the Hospital, that he and his successors shall have weekly three cartloads of underwood within the said wood or park of Pederton, viz. 'thorn,' 'aller,' 'mapel' and 'hasell,' to the use of the said prioress and sisters, each cartload being of the draught of six horses, and that they may cut and carry the whole amount for the year from the Annunciation to All Saints. By p.s.

Nov. 9. Licence for the master or warden and chaplains of the college of Westminster. Holy Trinity called 'Knolles Almeshous' in the town of Pountfreyt,
