

MEMBRANE 14.

Nov. 26. Westminster. Exemplification of the tenour of the enrolment of letters patent dated 28 October, 1 Henry IV, inspecting and confirming to John Chitterne letters patent dated 12 July, 22 Richard II. He has personally taken oath in Chancery that these letters have been accidentally lost and he will surrender the present letters if they are found.

Nov. 28. Westminster. Revocation of letters patent (see Vol. III. p. 106) granting the manor of Halweton, co. Oxford, to Petronilla Brocard. By an inquisition taken before John Golafre and Robert James, escheator in the county, by pretext of letters patent to them and Thomas Chaucer to enquire into a petition of William Clifford, 'chivaler,' and Anne his wife, and William Phelippes and Joan his wife, daughters of Thomas, late lord of Bardolf, it was found that Edward II. by letters patent granted the said manor by the name of the manor of Halghton to one Roger Damory and Elizabeth his wife, niece of the said king, and the heirs of the body of Roger, and they were accordingly seised thereof and received the esplees, and the right descended from Roger to Elizabeth his daughter and heiress and from her to William her son and heir and from him to the said Thomas, late lord of Bardolf, as his son and heir and the latter was seised of the manor in his demesne as of fee and continued his possession until it was taken into the king's hands by a judgement against him in the Parliament held at Westminster in 7 Henry IV, and terminated there in 8 Henry IV, and the said Roger, Elizabeth, William and Thomas are dead and the manor should descend to the said Anne and Joan; and afterwards, at the suit of the said petitioners the king directed the sheriff to summon the said Petronilla to appear in Chancery at a certain day now past to show cause why the letters should not be revoked, and he returned that he summoned her by Thomas Pangkeburn, John Dally, John Arches and Nicholas Webbe of Halweton, but she did not appear and judgement was given against her.

Nov. 29. Westminster. Presentation of John Everard, chaplain, to the church of Acle, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Nov. 28. Westminster. Commission to William Rees, esquire, to supervise and control all moneys expended by the sheriff of Norfolk in accordance with a writ of privy seal ordering him to repair the castle of Norwich in places where it should be expedient to the sum of 20*l.*, and to certify on his account to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer. By p.s.

Nov. 11. Westminster. Grant to the king's clerk William Ulf of the prebend of Sandyaere in the cathedral church of Lichfield. By p.s.

Nov. 29. Westminster. Licence for William Jonson, Robert Gabyfor, William Langeton, William Esyngton, William Middleton, Roger Thornton and William Belle, burgesses and merchants of Newcastle on Tyne, and other merchants inhabiting the said town to ship wools, hides and wool-fells to the sum of 600 sarplers and take them to parts beyond the seas of the king's friendship before Michaelmas, after first paying the customs and subsidies due in England and the moneys accustomed at Calais or finding sufficient security for payment; in furtherance of a like licence by letters patent (see Vol. III. p. 456) to Robert Swynborne and others for shipment before Martinmas, and in consideration
