

1409.

Membrane 8—cont.

the manor of Hemnale by the name of the manor of Hemnale in Hemnale and 40s. yearly rent in the towns of Freton, Moryngthorpe and Longestrattton and a messuage, 170 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow, 6 acres of wood and 7s. rent in the towns of Hemnale, Freton and Moryngthorpe, co. Norfolk, after the death of Ralph Hemnale and Robert Hemnale his son by colour of divers inquisitions taken before John le Straunge, late escheator in the county, and also before Edmund Oldhall and other commissioners of the king were taken into the king's hands and they were removed from possession, and the king by letters patent by mainprise of James Billingford and James More of the county of Norfolk and William Waller of the county of Suffolk committed the keeping of the premises to James Andrewe and John Beauver, and the said Simon sues to traverse the inquisitions; the king, having consideration to the right of the said Simon in the premises and for 600 marks paid to the treasurer of England, restores them to him with all issues and arrears.

By p.s.

1408.

*MEMBRANE 7.*Dec. 1.
Westminster.

Grant in mortmain to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Paul, London, of 6 messuages, 10 shops, a dovecote, a garden and a vacant plot of land in the city and suburbs of London, viz. a messuage with a shop adjacent in Ismongerlane in the parish of St. Martin Pomers in the ward of Westchepe, London, situated between a tenement of John Norhampton and John Broun on the south, a tenement sometime of John Adeyn on the north, the king's lane of Ismongerlane on the east and a tenement of the said John Adeyn and a tenement late of John Bosham on the west, 3 messuages, 9 shops and a vacant plot of land in the said parish situated between a tenement sometime of the said John Adeyn on the south, a tenement sometime of Maud Holbeche on the north, the said king's lane of Ismongerlane on the east and a tenement of the prior and convent of Elsyngspitell and a tenement sometime of William Cressewyc and William Parker on the west, a messuage, a dovecote and a garden in the street called Goswellestrete without the bar of Aldrychesgate in the parish of St. Botolph in the suburb of London, the garden extending to the highway towards the west and the garden late of the earl of Suffolk towards the east, and a messuage situated in the parish of St. Botolph without Algate in the suburb of London between a tenement of the prior and convent of Holy Trinity, London, towards the east and a tenement sometime of William Burford, 'brasier,' towards the west and extending from the high street towards the south to the garden of the said prior of Holy Trinity towards the north. John Heylesdon, late citizen and mercer of London, and John Chircheman lately had these of the grant of Adam Stable and Katharine his wife, and James de Billyngford, Robert Chircheman, 'stokfysshmonger,' and John Douve had them of the grant of the said John Chircheman, and John de Seyton and Joan his wife who granted the reversion of the same to William de Assheton, clerk, Robert de Whitby, clerk, and Thomas de Skelton had them of the grant of the said James, Robert and John, and they were acquired with moneys of the king's father John, late duke of Lancaster, by the said William, Robert and Thomas; and the king had them of the grant of the said Robert