

1408.

Membrane 7—cont.

formation that the castle is so ruinous and feeble that a parcel of its walls has fallen to the ground and the gaol there is on the point of falling and the prisoners are like to escape, of the timber of an old hall which has fallen to the ground within the castle with the stones of the walls of the hall, to be applied to the repair of the fallen part of the wall and the gaol by the supervision of the clerk of the works.

1409.

By p.s.

Feb. 12.
Westminster.

Grant to the citizens of York of pontage for two years in aid of the making of a bridge called Fossebrig across the water of Fosse within the city, which is in ruins, and the repair of another bridge called Ousebrig across the water of Ouse within the city, which is weak and broken.

Feb. 14.
Westminster.

Pardon to John Rothewell alias Robyns of Circestre, 'webbe,' in consideration of the enmity and disturbance which he has sustained from divers persons on account of the love which he bears towards the king's person and for his acceptable service lately at Circestre against the rebels, for which he is indicted of divers felonies at the procurance of his enemies of the county of Gloucester, for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions, misprisions, robberies, trespasses and felonies committed by him.

By p.s.

Renewed because sealed at another time under the date 5 September, 9 Henry IV.

MEMBRANE 6.

Feb. 10.
Westminster.

Licence, for 20*l.* paid in the hanaper by William de Burton of York, 'mercier,' William de Bergh, chaplain, and Elias Yhong, chaplain, for them to grant in mortmain five messuages and two shops in York and two gardens in the suburbs of the same city, held of the king in free burgage, to the chaplain of the chantry of SS. James, Lawrence, Katharine and Mary Magdalen in the church of St. Saviour, York, to celebrate divine service daily for the good estate of the said William de Burton and for his soul after death and the souls of Inetta his late wife and their fathers, mothers, ancestors, successors and benefactors according to his ordinance.

Feb. 12.
Westminster.

Commission to William Asenhull of the county of Cambridge and John Boteller of the county of Huntingdon of the keeping of Thomas Hasilden son and heir of Richard Hasilden and all his lordships and lands, the keeping of which pertains to the king because he is an idiot, so long as he is in his idiotcy, finding reasonable necessaries for him and his wife and their issue if any and servants, maintaining all houses and other buildings and paying all charges. For this they have paid 20 marks to the king.

By bill of the treasurer.

Pardon to Thomas Middulton, indicted of having on 12 November last stolen candles to the value of 10*s.* of the goods of Thomas Grene the younger and William Fynch at Coventre.

By K.

Feb. 15.
Westminster.

Commission, by mainprise of William Coventre of the county of Wilts, Thomas Heuster of the county of Stafford and Thomas Grey of the county of Dorset, to Humphrey Stafford the younger, knight, of the keeping of all lands late of William Huggefurd the younger, tenant in chief, and all lands late of Marjory late the wife of William