

Membrane 6—cont.

1408.

deceased, and Thomas de Skelton, 'chivaler,' (as described on p. 50,) according to the form of a charter of the said Robert. By K.

1409.

Feb. 25.
Westminster.

Grant, with the assent of the council, to John Tiptoft, treasurer of England, that in exoneration of the king's kinsman Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, and himself, who are bound to Richard Whityngton, citizen of London, in a sum of 1,100*l.* lent by him to the king's use for the payment of the wages of certain soldiers of the town and castle of Calais who on account of the present treaty between the king and his adversary of France were lately paid off (extra vadia positi), he may receive that sum from a moiety of the moiety of the subsidy of wools, hides and wool-fells assigned to the treasurer of Calais. By p.s.

MEMBRANES 5 and 4.

Jan. 17.
Westminster.

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's kinsman Richard, lord of Grey, to all tenants and residents willing to surrender to the king's grace of the lordships of Radnore, Melennyth, Rayder, Knyghton, Knoklace, Pulleth, Werthrynyan and Commotoyder in Wales, which he has of the king's grant during the minority of Edmund, earl of March, for all treasons, rebellions, insurrections, murders, rapes, felonies, misprisions and trespasses committed by them, and pardon to them of the forfeiture of their goods and lands and grant to the said Richard of their fines and ransoms for this; in consideration of his great labours and diligence at the mandate of the king and his son the prince in resisting the malice of the Welsh rebels, and because the tenants and residents through fear of imprisonment and punishment for their evil deeds and rebellions for the most part wander out of the lordships so that divers of these are almost desolate. By p.s.

Feb. 23.
Westminster.

Licence, for 6*s.* 8*d.* paid in the hanaper by Lucy late the wife of Robert Busshey, late citizen of London, for her to grant a messuage and two shops in the parish of St. Clement Danes without the bar of the New Temple, London, held in chief, to John de Oselby and Joan his wife and the heirs of their bodies with remainder to John son of the said Lucy and his heirs.

Feb. 20.
Westminster.

Pardon, at the special request of the king's son Henry, prince of Wales, to William de Laysyngby alias Lasyngby of the county of York for all treasons, insurrections, rebellions, felonies, misprisions, adherences to the king's enemies of France and Scotland and the Welsh rebels, offences, impeachments and trespasses. By K.

March 1.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's servant John Buntynge of the office of keeper of the artillery within the Tower of London with the wages and fees belonging to it, as Master John Cook had during his life of the grant of Edward III. By p.s.

Vacated because elsewhere in this year.

March 5.
Westminster.

Presentation of John Legburn to the church of Seggefild, in the diocese of Durham.

March 9.
Westminster.

Exemplification, at the request of Thomas, bishop of Durham, of the tenours of a process concerning the liberties of A. bishop of