

1408.

Membrane 35d cont.

Dordewant should recover against them 400 marks, at which the goods and merchandise specified in his bill and captured from him by them are extended, with reasonable costs.

Oct. 9.

Westminster.

The like to the same to levy the sum of 23*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* on the goods of William Harum, Robert Acclum, Simon Sage, William Hasant, John Appelby, John Thorpe, clerk, and John Thorpe, 'smyth,' who captured two ships, of which John Sassen and John Osterlyng were masters, laden with goods and merchandise of Albert Shreye and Henry Vloghelmygh, merchants of Hambergh.

Oct. 11.

Westminster.

Commission to William de Echyngham to seize a hulk of William Longe called Marie and all mariners and others in it and to put the hulk and all goods in it in safe-custody and detain the mariners and other persons under arrest until further orders.

MEMBRANE 34d.

Oct. 11.

Westminster.

Commission to Thomas Wodyngfeld, serjeant at arms, to levy the sum of 23*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* on the goods of William Harum and others and deliver the same to Albert Shreye and Henry Bloghelmygh or their attorney (as on m. 35d.) and to arrest the said William and others and bring them before the king in Chancery.

The like to the same to levy the sum of 400 marks on the goods of William Percy and others (as on m. 35d.)

MEMBRANE 33d.

Oct. 29.

Westminster.

Commission to William Babyngton, William Gamill, John Horspool and Richard Emlay of Wellowe to arrest John, son and heir of William de Langton and Alice his wife, and bring him immediately before the king and council.

MEMBRANE 32d.

Oct. 8.

Westminster.

Commission to John Cokayn, 'chivaler,' Thomas Foliambe, one of the keepers of the peace in the county of Derby, and the sheriff of the same county, on information that Robert Taillour of Chesterfeld, William Sagher of Chesterfeld, 'bocher,' John Taillour of Chesterfeld, Thomas Lowe of Chesterfeld and John Gefek of Stavele with other evildoers threaten Robert Sergeant, the king's bailiff of the town of Chesterfeld, and William Haliday, bailiff there of Joan late the wife of Thomas, late earl of Kent, and hinder the said Robert from executing the king's mandates and doing other things touching his office, and the said William from collecting the toll and other profits from the fair and market of the said Joan there and her farms, rents and services and doing her other business, as the said William has personally taken oath in Chancery, to cause the said Robert Taillour and others to come before them and find mainpernors that they will not harm the said Robert Sergeant and William Haliday or any other lieges of the king, or if they refuse to commit them to prison, and to enquire the names of those who aid, maintain or abet them,