

1408.

Membrane 32d cont.

Oct. 15. Commission to Richard Kays, serjeant at arms, to cause proclamation to be made in all ports and other places from the mouth of the Thames to the west of a truce general (French, recited) at sea between the king and his adversary of France and their subjects from All Saints next until 1 May, 1410, made beyond certain treaties in the parts of Picardy from the water of Summe to the water of Gravelyng, and so by all West Flanders to the town of Neuport and also in all the duchy of Aquitaine and county of Toulouse from 30 September last until the said 1 May. [Fadera.]

The like to John Elyngeham, serjeant at arms, from the mouth of the Thames to the north.

Oct. 20. Commission to William Hankeford, William Jewe, John Holewey, Thomas Derte and Richard Sachevyle to enquire into the story of William Blanchard of Rakenford, co. Devon, and Joan his wife that whereas many years ago Giles Asshe of Kirton, co. Devon, for a certain sum of money in hand paid and 14s. yearly rent demised to them certain lands in Baggeston and Reweasshe, co. Devon, for life, and they were in full possession the said Giles forcibly expelled them, assaulted William and carried off an ox, a bull and 8 cows worth 6*l.* and other goods to the value of 20*l.*

1409.

MEMBRANE 30d.

Feb. 14. Commission to Thomas Boneham and John Bernard to enquire what lands Hugh Berewyk, 'chivaler,' held in the county of Wilts what they are worth, on what day he died and who is his heir.

Feb. 26. Commission to Nicholas Montgomery, Robert Fraunceys, Thomas Greseley and William Neuport to arrest Hugh Erdeswyk, Joan Myners, Thomas Myners and William Myners and bring them immediately before the king and council. By C.

April 20. Commission to John Pelham to enquire by oath of good men of the counties of Kent and Sussex into the report that some of the king's lieges lately at sea in a barge of one William Longe of Rye captured a ship called Notre Dame of Honebone, of which Peter Pasko is master, and 35 tuns and 5 'roundelletes' of wine of Rochelle and other goods viz. gold and silver to the value of 100 crowns of one William de Bloy, Breton, merchant of Nautes in Brittany, contrary to the form of the treaty between the king and the duke of Brittany; and to cause the same or their value to be delivered to the said William de Bloy and to bring all who refuse before the king in Chancery with all speed.

1408.

MEMBRANE 25d.

Oct. 28. Commission, for half a year, to William Coupere to take carriage to the household for victuals and all other things touching the offices of buyer of the larder of the household.

MEMBRANES 23d and 22d.

Commissions of the peace in various counties, pursuant to the statutes and ordinances at Winchester, Northampton, Westminster and Cambridge. (See Appendix.)