

1409.

Membrane 22.—cont.

in the town of Tychefeld and a moiety of an acre of land in the said town and a moiety of an acre of meadow late of William Dodde in Stobhemmede by Tychefeld, by Emma Smyth of a messuage and 5½ acres of land in the same town and by Thomas Bruyn, clerk, and John Upton, clerk, of a messuage and a toft late of the said William in the said town and 16*d.* rent from two cottages which Roger Hirschon and Juliana his wife and Laurence Smyth hold for life in the same town and the reversions of a messuage, 6 cottages and an acre of land in the said town which John Topcroft and Sybil his wife hold for life, the said two cottages which the said Roger, Juliana and Laurence hold for life and a messuage in the same town which Agnes Batur holds for life.

May 8. Pardon to Matthew Beaumont of his outlawry in the county of Westminster. Devon for not appearing before the king to satisfy him of his ransom on account of a re-disseisin of Thomas Kelle, Peter Eggecombe, Robert Weryng and John Beaumont of a messuage, 50 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow and 12 acres of furze and heath in Hurdewyke, of which he was convicted by an inquisition taken before Thomas Pomeray, late sheriff of Devon, on Wednesday, 1 June, 2 Henry IV, at Hurdewyk in the presence of William Gybbes and Thomas Dabernoun, keepers of the pleas of the crown there; he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as William Gascoigne, chief justice, has certified; so that he satisfy the king of the ransom.

May 8. Grant for life to the king's esquire Gerard Hune of 12*l.* yearly Westminster. from the issues of the manor of Gissiche Bowen, co. Dorset, from which William Forde, clerk, deceased, lately had 10*l.* of the grant of Edmund Mortymer and the king; in recompense of a grant to him by the name of Gerard Herun of lands and rents late of John de Kenley by letters patent (see Vol. III. p. 38), which are invalid because the lands and rents have been restored to the said John by virtue of a pardon made to him. He has personally taken oath in Chancery that these letters have been accidentally lost and that he will surrender them if found. By K.

April 17. Grant for life to the king's servant Robert Penford, yeoman of Westminster. the household, of the office of keeper of the king's arms within the Tower of London, receiving 7½*d.* daily at the hands of the master-keeper of the privy wardrobe within the Tower with a robe of the suit of the yeomen of the household at the hands of the keeper of the great wardrobe, as John Cook had; in lieu of a grant of the office to John Buntynge by letters patent (see p. 54), surrendered as invalid because mention is not made of the office of keeper of the arms, and by an agreement made between the said John Buntynge and Robert. Grant to him also for life for his stay there of a little mansion vacant within the Tower near the tower within which the rolls of Chancery are contained. By p.s.

May 11. Grant to the king's esquire Robert Waterton and Cecily his wife
Westminster. and their heirs of the manor of Wallewykgraunge with all other lands, rents, services and reversions within the liberty of Tyndale called 'Talbotlande,' co. Northumberland, with all lands, rents, services and reversions in the town of Fangfosse, co. York, in the king's hands