

1409.

Membrane 20.—cont.

50 marks yearly in deduction, and afterwards on 28 February last by other letters patent the king committed to John Philippes the keeping of the manor of Horstede, co. Norfolk, parcel of the alien house or priory of Came in Normandy, from Easter then following during the war with France at a rent of 26*l.* yearly, and on 2 March last by other letters patent granted to John Emond 20*l.* yearly for life from the issues of the manor, and the said John and John have surrendered these letters; the king grants to the said Thomas the said manor for life during the war from Easter last in deduction of 20*l.* yearly from the 50 marks remaining without rendering anything to the king, with remainder to the said John Philippes for life during the war at a rent of 20*l.* yearly.

By p.s.

May 17. Confirmation and grant to Robert Babthorpe (as on p. 78); notwithstanding that he has for life of the king's grant other lands, rents and services within the city of York to the value of 40 marks yearly, which do not exceed the value of 10*l.* yearly, and the office of steward of the honour of Leicester.

By p.s.

Jan. 10. Grant for life to the king's servant Henry Foulter, serjeant of the larder, of 20*l.* yearly at the Exchequer; in recompense of the office of crier of the marshalsea of the household, of the value of 40 marks yearly, lately granted to him by letters patent, surrendered because the office pertains to the gift of the king's brother the earl of Westmorland as marshal of England.

By p.s.

June 3. Grant for life to Thomas Bussh that he shall be one of the king's serjeants at arms, of the number of thirty ordained in Parliament of Richard II at Westminster, in the place of Richard de Drax, deceased, receiving for his wages 12*d.* daily at the Exchequer with a robe of the suit of other serjeants at arms yearly at the hands of the keeper of the great wardrobe.

By p.s.

May 30. Inspeximus and confirmation to Robert Tyndale of letters patent (French) of the king's consort Joan, queen of England, dated at Braynford, 12 September, 9 Henry IV, granting for her life to her servitor the said Robert, yeoman of her beds, the office of parker of her parks of Devyses, receiving for his wages 4*d.* daily from the issues of the lordship of Devyses and for his fees  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for each beast agisted in the parks, with ferns growing there, old or windfallen wood, old hedges and 'brousyng'; and grant that he shall have the same for life.

By p.s. and for 1 mark paid in the hanaper.

May 20. Pardon to Roger Horton of his outlawry in the county of Oxford for not appearing before the king to satisfy the king of his ransom for not having Richard Vernon and others before him at a fixed day to assign errors in a record and process and judgement of an assize of novel disseisin and the promulgation of outlawry in the same between William, parson of the church of Pesemere, and William Somerton and the said Richard and others before John Hulle and Hugh Huls and afterwards before John Hulle and Henry Broun, justices of assize, as he made mainprise; he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as William Gascoigne, chief justice, has certified.