

1409.

Membranes 15 and 14—cont.

house of Cluny, 13s. 4d. from the apport of the priory of Lenton due to the house of Cluny, 40s. from the apport of the alien priory of Blythe, 20 marks from the apport of the priory of Aundevever, 10l. from the farm of the alien priory of St. Michael, co. Cornwall, 40 marks from the yearly farm which the prior of Farlegh is bound to render to the nuns of Marcigny (Mortigniaco); 17 marks from the farm beyond the said 40 marks which the same prior renders yearly, 25 marks from the administration of all fruits of the church of Romeneoy, 10 marks from the pension which the abbot of Sautre was bound to render to the alien abbot of Bon Repos for the churches of Foulbourne and others, 100s. from the pension which the prior of Newstead on Acelm is bound to render to the alien abbot of Longevillers, 2 marks from the pension which the prior and monks of Horsham, of the order of St. Benedict, used to render to the abbey of Cuneles, 43 marks from the pension which the abbot of Rewley used to render yearly to the alien abbot of Pyn, 40 marks from the administration of all fruits of the church of Dokkyng, which is parcel of the priory of Munstreloveil, 20l. from the keeping of the alien priory of Sporle and 80l. from the keeping of the manor of Michelhampton and all possessions, lands and rents of the alien abbess of Caen; to hold with knights' fees, advowsons, franchises, liberties, royalties, annuities, pensions, portions, apports, tenths, oblations, mortuaries, courts, rents, suits, services, villains and other profits, with the provision that any of the said priories, manors, farms and lands that may come into the king's hands shall immediately remain to her with knights' fees, advowsons, implements, stock and other things and all liberties, franchises and commodities, with damages in case of waste, provided that she contribute to tenths, fifteenths and subsidies granted by the clergy and commons of the realm; and also 333l. 6s. 8d. yearly from the custom of wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of London, 333l. 6s. 8d. from the same in the port of Southampton, 200l. yearly from the petty custom there, 312l. 21½d. yearly from the custom of wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of Boston, 133l. 6s. 8d. from the petty custom in the port of Bristol, the farm of 15l. which William la Zouche of Totteneyns, knight, and his heirs are bound to render yearly for the hundred of Calne and a water-mill in Calne, co. Wilts, 31l. from the farm of the city of Winchester and 40l. which the abbot, prior and convent of St. Edmunds are bound to render yearly from the keeping of the abbey and its temporalities.

Vacated so far as relates to the priories and other alien possession because Henry V. on 27 January, in his first year, granted to the said queen and John de Tibbay and Thomas Feriby, clerk, divers keepings, sums, rents and possessions, in full satisfaction of her dower.

By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 14—cont.

July 1. Licence, for 20l. paid in the hanaper by William Thanworth, Westminster. clerk, Bernard Mulleward, Robert Shepherd and Thomas Botiler, for them to found a chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Nicholas in the chapel of St. Thomas the Martyr in the suburb of Bristol for the souls of Robert Chepe, late burgess of Bristol, and Agnes his wife, to be called the chantry of Robert Chepe; to grant in mortmain to the chaplain two messuages and three shops in the said town, held of the king in free burgage, and a messuage and six shops in the suburb, not held of the king;