Licence for Richard de Hornby, chaplain, Thomas Martyn, chaplain, and Robert de Appilton, chaplain, to grant in mortmain a messuage in York, held of the king in free burgage, as is all the city, and worth 24s. yearly, as found by an inquisition taken by Henry Wyman, mayor and escheator in the city, to the warden of the habitation of the vicars of the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, called "le Bederne," and the same vicars to hold to the value of 5 marks yearly in part satisfaction of a licence by letters patent of the king.

Licence, for 20l. paid in the hanaper by the abbot of Abbot'sbury, for the alienation in mortmain by Humphrey Stafford the elder, knight, William Hankeford, knight, Richard Clopton, Nicholas Yonge, Morgan Gogh, Robert Grey and Edmund Elyot, clerk, of the manor of Bromleigh Castell, not held in chief, and by the said Nicholas and William Ekerdon, clerk, of 20s. yearly rent from a messuage, 46 acres of land and 4 acres of meadow in Kyungston Russell to the abbot and convent to find a secular chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of the Holy Cross in the church of the abbey for the good estate of the said Richard and Christina his wife and Eleanor the wife of Walter Clopton, knight, and for their souls after death and the souls of the said Walter and Edith his late wife and William Langynov and the fathers and mothers of Walter and Edith and to keep the anniversaries of the said Walter, Edith and William Langynov yearly on the day of the Eleven Thousand Virgins in the abbey with plecho and dirige on the vigil of the same day with requiem mass with chant on the same day at the high altar and to find five wax tapers burning around the tomb of Walter and Edith at the equeques and mass on the anniversaries, to give to the monks of the abbey who may be present 6s. 8d. for their pittances, to distribute 6s. 8d. among the poor and needy, to pay 8l. to the bellringers of the abbey church and to find for the chaplain a chalice, book, vestment, bread, wine, wax and phials and all other ornaments at the altar, rendering yearly to the said Humphrey and others and the heirs of Humphrey and William Hankeford 100s. under certain conditions specified in certain indentures made between them.

William Clifford, "chivaler," and Anne his wife and William Phelipes and Joan his wife, daughters of Thomas, late lord of Bardolf, have shown the king how Henry [III.] by letters patent granted to one Thomas Bardolf and his heirs of the body of Rose the daughter of Ralph Hanselyn the manor of Shelford and Stokbards, co. Nottingham, and the manor of Haloughton, co. Leicester, by the name of all the land of the inheritance of Ralph Hanselyn grandfather of the said Rose escheated to the king, and the said Thomas Bardolf married Rose and was seised of the manors in his demesne as of fee by the form of the said grant and the right descended from him to one Dodo as his son and heir of the body of the said Rose, and from him to William his son and heir, and from him to William his son and heir, and from him to Hugh his son and heir, and from him to Thomas his son and heir, who died without heir of his body, and from him to William son of the said Hugh his brother and heir, and from him to Thomas his son and heir, and from him to John his son and heir,