and from him to William his son and heir, and from him to the said Thomas, late lord of Bardolf, his son and heir, and the latter was seised of the manors in his demesne as of fee by the form of the said grant and continued his possession until they were taken into the king's hands by a judgement against him in the Parliament begun at Westminster, 7 Henry IV, and finished there, 8 Henry IV, and from him the right descended to the said Anne and Joan as his daughters and heiresses, and the king on 10 August, 6 Henry IV, by letters patent granted the manors among other lands late of the same Thomas, late lord of Bardolf, to his consort Joan, queen of England, for life. The king, in consideration of the said right and title, grants the reversion of the manors with knights' fees and advowsons on the death of his said consort to the said William and Anne, William and Joan and the heirs of the bodies of Anne and Joan as the said Thomas, late lord of Bardolf, had them; and also grants to the same the reversion on the death of the queen of the manor of Birlyng, co, Sussex, with knights' fees and advowsons, of which the said Thomas was seised on the day of his forfeiture.

By p.s.

May 12.
Westminster.

Grant for life to William de Seint Jakes, lately converted to the faith, of ½d. daily at the hands of the warden of the House of Convants, London, beyond 1½d. which he receives daily at the hands of the warden as one of the Jews converted to the Christian faith. By p.s.

July 18.
Westminster.

Whereas Thomas Beaupyne was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Northpdirton, co. Somerset, held of the king as of his crown by knight-service and by the service of 100s. yearly; the king grants to his esquire John Flory the said 100s. yearly for life from the said manor with the arrears due to the king at the hands of those who have occupied the manor after the death of the said Thomas. By p.s.

July 18.
Westminster.

Licence, in lieu of another licence to them by letters patent dated 1 November, 4 Henry IV (see Vol. II. p. 177), surrendered, which have not had effect, and in consideration of the fine then paid by them and for 40s. now paid by them in the hanaper, for Nicholas Bubbewyth, now bishop of Bath and Wells, John Duffield, John More, Richard Gabriell and Henry Crosse to grant the same three messuages and one shop in Criditon to the precentor and canons of the collegiate church of St. Cross, Criditon, in mortmain to find two choristers to serve daily in the said church beyond the number of four ordained of old and to support other charges and works of piety according to the ordinance of Thomas de Barton, canon of the cathedral church of Exeter.

April 29.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's servants Roger Seinpere, Vivian Masey, John Kent and John Claveryng of whatever pertains to the king on account of the escapes of two felons, viz. John Bekeman alias John atte Lane of Blownham, co. Bedford, and William Hertle of the county of Northumberland, out of the prison of the king's gaol of Bedeford. By p.s.

July 23.
Westminster.

Whereas the town of Great Jernemuthe, seated on the sea-coast on the frontier of the parts of Norfolk and Suffolk in resistance of the invasions of the king's enemies and a capital key and fortification of those parts, is so devastated by the total destruction of the