10 HENRY IV. PART II.

MEMBRANE 7 cont.

Aug. 16. Westminster. Grant to the king's servant Richard Grene of Mongeham of the office of gauger of wine in the Cinque Ports and all their members as Thomas Walsyngham had of the king's grant by letters patent, surrendered.

MEMBRANE 6.

Aug. 14. Westminster. Grant to the king's esquire John Gray, for good service to the king and his son the prince, of 40 marks yearly from the issues of the county of Northumberland.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because Henry V. on 10 September in his first year granted to him 40l. yearly for life from the same.

Aug. 16. Westminster. Grant to the king's son Thomas de Lancaster of all extents of all manors, lands and fees and reversions in the king's hands by the deaths of Richard de Sancto Mauro, 'chivaler,' and Mary his wife, the keeping of which the king lately granted by letters patent to Hugh Mortymer during the minority of the heir.

Mandate in pursuance to the said Hugh. Et cæteris patens.

May 10. Westminster. Grant for life to the king's servant William Tregold of the office of the wardrobe of the king's beds, of 100s. yearly from the issues of the counties of Nottingham and Derby.

By p.s. & by K.

Aug. 18. Westminster. Mandate to all ecclesiastical persons, notwithstanding a former writ by which the king ordered that all sums of money and other reversions and emoluments pertaining to the pope in the realm should be kept safely to the use of the pope by a certain person deputed by the king, to permit the bishop of Ancona, collector general of the pope in England, to collect all sums of money from the pence of St. Peter and the yearly cesses in the realm pertaining to the chamber of the pope to the sum of 1000 marks and also the procurations due to him after he has taken oath of office to the sum of 200l. yearly, by the supervision and control of Richard Whitington, citizen and mercer of London, and Philip de Albertis, merchant of Florence, who are bound to the king for the payment of the sums collected by the bishop.

Aug. 22. Westminster. Commission to R. bishop of London, Thomas Beauford, Thomas Erpyningham, Master Thomas Felde, Robert Thorley, William Sevenok and John Oxney to hear and determine an appeal by Edmund Brook, mariner, showing that although Master John Sturmyuster, late lieutenant general of Edmund, late earl of Kent, admiral of England, in a maritime case in the court of Admiralty on account of a ship called Lawrence of Gipperwyche between the said Edmund, plaintiff, and John Kirken, Richard Hornese, John Walas and William Burton, fellows in the case, merchants of Kyngeston on Hull, defendants, gave judgement for Edmund nevertheless a part of the same defendants appealed to the king, by pretext of which Master John Kyngston and others by colour of a commission of the king annulled the judgement and condemned Edmund in expenses.