Licence, in consideration of the immense charges sustained by the prior and convent of Lewes to grant the advowsons of the churches of Compton and Upmerdone, which are of their own patronage and do not exceed the value of 20 marks yearly, to the prior and convent in mortmain, and for these to appropriate the churches in mortmain, provided that vicarages be sufficiently endowed and competent sums of money from the fruits of the churches distributed yearly by them among the poor parishioners according to the ordinance of the ordinaries.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's son Humphrey of the keeping of all lands late of Barnard Myssenden and by his death in the king's hands at present and in the future, during the minority of the heir, with the marriage of the latter without disparagement, and so from heir to heir.

By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's servant William Fithilton, of the office of the larder within the household, of a messuage in the town of Coventry sometime of the Jews there, which John Hokkeley lately held, and three cottages in the street called Hullestrete in the same town late of Hugh Pentrer, which came into the king's hands on the death of Richard de Hampton, late feodary of Edward, prince of Wales, father of Richard II, and are worth 34s. yearly.

By p.s.

Grant, during good behaviour, to Richard Garner, in lieu of a commission of the same to him by letters patent dated 22 February last, surrendered, of the keeping or office of the king's exchange in the city of London and the town of Calais and the keeping and governance of the mystery of the mint within the Tower of London and the said town, receiving such wages, fees and profits as Walter Merwe had, so that he answer for a moiety of the profit from the exchange at the Exchequer.

By K.

Grant for life to the king's knight Thomas de Brounflete, treasurer of the household, who has of the grant of Richard II, confirmed by the king, the keeping of the park of Folyjon with wages of 2d. daily for life, of the said park and the manor of Folyjon with all rents and services to the sum of 26l. yearly, so that he answer for any surplus at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

Licence for William de Clynton, 'chivaler,' and Anne late the wife of Fulk Fitz Waryn, 'chivaler,' deceased, tenant in chief, to intermarry.

By K.

Grant to the king's esquire Hugh Mortymer, for a certain sum paid at the king's chamber, of the marriage of Alice the daughter and heiress of Richard de Sancto Mauro, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, a minor in the king's ward, and so from heir to heir.

By p.s.