Membrane 21—cont.

1409.

and is like to be committed to the Flete prison; the king, considering how the said Thomas came to him with a ship at Boloigne and thence into the realm when he last put into the realm, pardons to him all receipts, accounts, debts and arrears of the office from the said 28 October until now, provided that this be not drawn into a precedent in future.

By p.s.

The like for Robert Fysshlake of Dover, to whom on 30 October, 1 Henry IV, the king granted the office of bailiff of Wynchelseyce for life.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 20.

John Sprynghthorpe, clerk, received the attorneys until the arrival of the nominator in England.

Oct. 26. Westminster. Commission, for half a year, to Thomas Holewey to take partridges and other fowls for the expenses of the household and carriage for the same.

Oct. 25. Westminster. Presentation of John Wynter, master or warden of the parish church of Thele, in the diocese of London, to the church of Newton, in the diocese of Lincoln, on an exchange of benefices with John Thorpe.

By p.s.

Oct. 6. Westminster. Grant to the king's son Humphrey of the keeping of all lands late of Bernard Myssenden during the minority of Katharine and Alice his daughters and heiresses with their marriage, and so from heir to heir, finding a competent maintenance for the heirs, maintaining the houses and buildings and supporting all charges.

By p.s.

By p.s.

Oct. 23. Westminster. Grant for life to the king's servitor John Seyntelere of the office of purveyor of all necessaries for the works within the palace of Westminster and Tower of London, receiving such daily wages at the hands of the clerk of the works with other due fees and profits as John Pritewell had, in lieu of a like grant to the latter by letters patent dated 18 March, 2 Henry IV, surrendered, and a house for his habitation within the Tower which the said John Pritewell had.

By p.s.

Nov. 3. Westminster. Pardon to Howel ap Gwilym, abbot of Conewey in Wales, of all insurrections, rebellions, misprisions, felonies, trespasses and other things committed by him against the king's allegiance.

By p.s.

Nov. 4. Westminster. Licence, for 80 marks paid in the hanaper, for Seman de Tonge to found a chantry of two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of Holy Trinity in the church of St. Mary, Faversham, for his good estate and for his soul after death and the souls of his parents, friends and benefactors, and to grant in mortmain to the chaplains a messuage, 360 acres of land, 7 acres of meadow, 30 acres of wood, 278