1410.

March 5. Westminster. Grant to William Malet, John de Byrne, John Dawneer, Robert de Santon, Thomas Monkton and John Alas of pavyage for five years for the town of Selby.

March 3. Westminster. Grant to the king's esquire John Hawkeswell that he shall be one of the king's serjeants at arms in the place of John Howet, deceased, recieving 12d. daily for life from the issues of the nhage and subsidy of cloths in the county of York. The king lately, in recompense of 9l. yearly which he had in the Exchequer by letters patent, cancelled, by other letters patent the lands of George Darel, which the latter has now recovered with issues.

March 12. Westminster. Pardon to John ap Gilberd for all insurrections, treasons, rebellions and felonies committed by him, except murder, rapes and common larceny. By K.

March 8. Westminster. Commission to the king's clerk William Aghton to take seisin in the king's name of five messuages, ten cottages, seven shops and three gardens in the parishes of St. Mary del Stronde and St. Clement Danes without the bar of the New Temple, London, which Maud late the wife of Thomas Hervy has granted to the king under the intention that he should grant the same to her for life with remainder to the dean and canons of the new collegiate church of St. Mary, Leycestre, in frank almoine, in augmentation of the maintenance of the poor of the almshouse within the said college; and to certify thereon to the king in Chancery. One messuage called 'le Swan' with a garden, a cottage and a shop adjoining lies between the tenement sometime of William Goldman on the west and the tenement of William Skrene on the east; another called 'le Flourdelise' with three cottages and three shops adjoining lies between the tenement of John Shelton on the west and the lane extending towards St. Giles on the east in the said parish of St. Mary del Stronde; a third with a garden and a dovecote in it lies between the tenement of John Everdon, clerk, on the west and the tenement of the master of the New Temple, London, on the east; a fourth called 'Seynt Mary Inne' by 'le Angell' with a garden, three cottages and two shops adjoining lies between the garden which William Fouler holds on the west and the said messuage called 'le Angell' on the east; and the same messuage called 'le Angell' with three cottages and one shop adjoining lies between the said messuage called 'Seynt Mary Inne' on the west and the tenement which Robert Thorley holds on the east in the said parish of St. Clement.