1410.

June 12. Exemplification, at the request of William Doyl and Isabel his wife, of the tenour of the enrolment of a record (French) on the roll of the Parliament at Westminster, 11 Henry IV. [Rolls of Parliament, III. 633.]

June 16. The like, at the request of John, lord of Lovell.

June 7. Pardon to Thomas Micheldever alias Mucheldever of the county of Somerset for all felonies, extortions and contempts committed by him, except treasons, murders and rapes.

MEMBRANE 16.

June 10. Grant to the king's kinsman John Moubray of the keeping of the manors of Little Framyngham and Suthfeld, co. Norfolk, of his own inheritance, by mainprise of Nicholas Ledewich and Robert Cecile of the county of York, to hold from Easter last during his minority, rendering 67l. 8s. 10d. yearly at the Exchequer, viz. 35l. for the manor of Suthfeld and 32l. 8s. 10d. for the manor of Little Framyngham, maintaining the houses and buildings and supporting all charges; in lieu of a like grant of the keeping to the king's knight Thomas Erpyngham by letters patent dated 8 August, 6 Henry IV, surrendered.

June 11. Grant to the burgesses of the town of Colchester, in consideration of their great costs in the enclosure of the town anew with walls of stone and lime for the resistance of the king's enemies and its safe-keeping, that they shall be quit for twelve years from sending any of their fellow burgesses to Parliament, provided that they support all statutes, ordinances and charges in these Parliaments.

May 16. Whereas Thomas Gouteby was lately seised in his demesne as of the manor of Thetylthorpe called Keleshalle with the advowson of the church of All Saints, Thetilthorpe, within the king's lordship of the duchy of Lancaster, and afterwards granted an acre of land, parcel of the manor, with the advowson of the church to an abbot of Revesby, of the foundation of the king's progenitors, dukes of Lancaster, by licence of Edward [III], and subsequently one John Toft, predecessor of the present abbot, by licence of Richard II appropriated the church and was in possession of it until lately an abbot being certified that pope Boniface had revoked all appropriations presented one John Pakyngton to the church and the latter was admitted, instituted and inducted, and so the church was dis-appropriated; the king, for 10l. paid in the hanaper by the present abbot, grants licence for him and the convent to re-appropriate the church in mortmain, so that a competent sum of money from the fruits of the church be distributed by them yearly to the poor parishioners and a vicarage sufficiently endowed according to the ordinance of the diocesan.