mainders and prests in demand against him by process in the Exchequer by reason of wines and ale and any vessels of gold and silver, wooden cups, bottles [and] pots of leather, iron bound (ferarios) barrels, ‘gardeviandes,’ empty vessels and other things pertaining to his office spent, lost, wasted and carried off from the vigil of St. Mary Magdalen, 5 Henry IV, until the said 25 April.

By p.s.

May 25. Westminster.

Grant to William Tristour, the king’s saddler, in recompense of 70l. due to him from the king for divers parcels of his mistery delivered to the king’s use, of a yearly rent of 7l. from a tenement called ‘le Sunne’ in Westchepe in the parish of St. Vedast, London, and two shops annexed, which 7l. were taken into the hands of Richard II for divers debts and accounts due by Adam Bamme, late one of the collectors of the great custom in the port of London, to hold from Michaelmas last for ten years.

By p.s.

1409.
Nov. 16. St. Albans.

Grant for life to the king’s clerk John Kyngton of a tun of red wine of Gascony yearly at Christmas in the port of Sandwich, even if he enter and be professed in any religion and so be dead in law.

By K.

1410.

Pardon, at the supplication of John Danys, to him and John Fray of the county of Essex and John Warde of the county of Warwick, his mainperners, of 200l. which he was to render at the Exchequer according to a grant by letters patent dated 16 June last of the keeping of all lands late of Henry Retford, tenant in chief, during the minority of his son and heir with the marriage of the latter without disparagement; as the king is informed that the keeping and marriage cannot come to them, because the said Henry held no lands in chief.

By p.s. & by C.

March 8. Westminster.

Grant to the king’s kinsman John brother and heir of Thomas, late earl Marshal, of 300l. yearly for his gear and maintenance so long as he is a minor and in the king’s custody; as the king has exonerated Joan, countess of Hereford, from his governance and received him to dwell in the household and letters patent made to her (see Vol. III. p. 375) have been surrendered. He shall have in part satisfaction of that sum all lands, rents, reversions and services of his inheritance in the king’s hands by the death of Blanche, lady of Ponymes, in the counties of York, Leicester and Northampton, from her death, with the manor Creke, co. Northampton, of his inheritance, in the king’s hands by the death of William Bagot, ‘chivaler,’ and two parts of the manor of Weston by Chiriton, co. Warwick, of his inheritance, in the king’s hands by the death of Richard de Burgh, esquire, from Michaelmas last, to the value of 126l. yearly and the remaining 174l. yearly at the Exchequer.

April 24. Westminster.

Inspeximus and confirmation to William Bowes, knight, of an indenture (French) of the king’s brother John, late earl of Somerset, chamberlain of England, dated at London, 1 March, 7 Henry IV, retaining the said William his bachelor for life in peace and war with wages and ‘bouche de court’ as other household bachelors of the earl of his estate have and 20l. yearly for his fee from the issues of the lordship of Orwell, co. Cambridge, and similar treatment to the