Oct. 17. Westminster. Presentation of Thomas Stratton alias Taillour, parson of the church of Southshobery, in the diocese of London, to the vicarage of Upcherche, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbey of l’Isle Dieu being in his hands on account of the war with France, on an exchange of benefices with Simon Stok.

Oct. 18. Westminster. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, latyly granted by letters patent to Thomas Selby, esquire, staying on the king’s service in the company of the king’s son Henry, captain of the town of Calais, on the safe-keeping of the same, because he delays in the county of Surrey, as the sheriff has certified.

Oct. 16. Westminster. Revocation of letters patent granting to the king’s esquires Helmyng Legat and William Loveneye the keeping of the manor of Bobbyngworth, co. Essex, with the advowson of the church of Bobbyngworth during the minority of Thomas son and heir of Thomas Enfeld, and so from heir to heir. The king by letters patent dated 22 May, 10 Henry IV [Fine Roll, 10 Henry IV, m. 8], committed the keeping of the manor to William Wodeward and Agnes his wife; and on 20 May in the said year, remembering how on 20 May then last past he granted the keeping of the manor with the advowson as above to the said Helmyng and William Loveneye, which keeping the chancellor by bill of the treasurer committed by letters patent to the said William Wodeward and Agnes, he granted the custody of the manor and advowson to the said Helmyng and William Loveneye; and afterwards, at the suit of the said William Wodeward and Agnes by petition in Parliament complaining that they had been removed from possession, the matter was sent by authority of Parliament to be examined before the council and was so examined and after deliberation with the justices of either Bench and others learned in the law judgement was given that the letters should be revoked and the said William Wodeward and Agnes restored to possession.
