Richard II, of all manors, lands, rents, services and reversions with all fees, homages, wards, marriages, advowsons, franchises, rights and liberties late of the said Henry in England, both those in which he had estate to himself and the heirs of his body and those which he held by the law of England of the right of Ralph after the death of Maud his late wife, mother of Ralph, and the judgement was affirmed in Parliament at Westminster, 10 November, 1 Henry IV, and afterwards in the same Parliament the king declared that he held by way of conquest all manors, lands, fees, homages, wards, marriages, advowsons, rights, franchises and liberties then of the said Henry, and on 6 September, 1 Henry IV, by letters patent the king granted to Ralph all issues from the lands which Henry thus held; the king grants that the said livery shall be valid and pardons his entry on the premises.

By p.s.

March 12. Inspeaximus and confirmation to William Darell of a writing of John Cranebourne, the master, and the brethren of the House of God, Osprenge, dated 1 August, 8 Henry IV, granting to him for life a yearly rent of 10 marks from their lands in the parish of Osprenge, with power of distraint. For 20s. paid in the hanaper.

April 20. Grant to the king’s brother Thomas Beaufort, the chancellor, to whom in support of his great charges in office and his estate the king granted a reward of 800 marks yearly beyond the common wages and fees of the office, that he shall have the said sum yearly during pleasure from the issues of the hanaper so far as they suffice beyond other charges and assignments of 1100l. for the household and any deficit in a competent place to be chosen by him from time to time. Vacated because in the eleventh year.

March 29. Pardon to John son of Robert son of Alan de Kendall for the death of John Cokson on Friday after the Assumption, 11 Henry IV, at Hawkesed in Fourncesfell within the town of Dalton.

By p.s.

March 19. Appointment, with the assent of the king’s son Thomas de Lancastre, lieutenant in Ireland, of Patrick, bishop of Ferns, as chancellor in Ireland during pleasure, receiving 10s. daily for his wages and fees and the rewards pertaining to the office from the issues of the hanaper in Ireland, with priority of payment. If the issues do not suffice he shall receive the residue at the exchequer of Ireland.

By K.

MEMBRANE 18.

March 11. Revocation of protection with clause volumus, for one year, lately granted by letters patent to John Bailly going to Picardy on the king’s service in the company of the king’s son Thomas de Lancastre, captain of the castle of Guynes, on the safe-keeping of the same, because he delays in divers parts of the county of Norfolk, as the sheriff has certified.

March 12. Presentation of John Smyth, chaplain, to the church of Stourewprewes, in the diocese of Salisbury, vacant by the resignation of Henry Blakburn.